ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM CONDON AND GILLIAM COUNTY

Fred Anderson is in from Pine Ridge.

Miss Rose Wherry left for Heppner this morning.

Miss Belle Townsend is visiting friends in Mayville this week.

Wm. Burns returned last evening from a week's sojourn in the Rose City.

E. J. Catlett returned from Portland Friday. He disposed of 27 head of horses while in the valley.

The Misses Potterton, of Portland, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hurlburt this week.

Mrs. E. O. McCoy and son, of The Dalles, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hallie S. Rice this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Clark and Miss Agnes Clark, of Monmouth, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Butler, this week.

Mrs. George Schott, of Ferry Canyon, returned last evening from an extended visit to Monmouth.

Bob Palmer expects to leave Saturday for Shaniko where he will work in the hotel recently purchased by E. C. Rogers, of this city.

Mrs. J. D. Estes, Mrs. J. E. Hunt, Mrs. Elma Case and Miss Alice Portwood are planning for a trip east the latter part of the month.

E. M. Larkin of the Best Combined Harvester Co., is again in this vicinity, after a month's visit in Sherman county and the Klickitat country where he placed a number of machines.

Miss Maud Coffin and Mrs. Archie Ferguson went to Hood River the first of the week, from which place they will go to Mt. Hood. Mrs. Ferguson will return to Condon for a few days after which she will go to Portland to be the guest of Miss Coffin for several months.

Miss Grace McKinney, of Blalock, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. Farr for a week, returned home Monday. Miss McKinney was taking subscriptions for the Oregon Journal as she is striving for a place in the contest, now conducted by that progressive newspaper. Miss McKinney now stands second in this district — Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington, in the Oregon Journal contest, being only a thousand votes behind the first place contestant. The Journal is a live newspaper and Miss McKinney should receive strong support while soliciting for that paper.

Whist was the Game.

A most enjoyable evening was spent on Wednesday when the members of the Minnehaha Rebekah lodge entertained their friends at progressive whist. About forty guests gathered around the tables to contest for honors. Mrs. J. J. Portwood was awarded a beautiful silver coffee spoon for making the highest score among the ladies and Mr. James Burns won a handsome "near beer" stein. Refreshments were served after the awarding of prizes.

John Knox left yesterday morning for Long Beach, Wash., to enjoy the sea breezes.

Morrow county's wheat crop is estimated at 900,000 bushels.

Lester Wade returned Monday to his home at Olex after a two weeks' sojourn.

Prof. G. T. McArthur left for the valley on Wednesday going overland with his team.

Frank Laughrige, who was the guest of his brother Norbert, this week left yesterday for Pendleton.

Jim Cameron who has been around Sumpter looking after his sheep returned to Condon last Saturday.

The Arlington Lumber Co. loaded their last car of last year's wheat this week for the Portland market.

Dr. Edna Blake, the osteopath, left Wednesday for Pullman, Wash., where she will locate and practice her profession during the next year.

James and William Cook were passengers on the out-going train on Monday and bound for Portland and Seattle.

John W. Hire, of the Condon Livery Barn leaves to-morrow for Heppner to bring back a team and buggy which has been used by commercial men in making the interior country.

Andrew Tellefson, of Shaniko, was the guest of his brother Martin Tellefson, of the Gilliam County Mills, for a day this week while on his way to Wilbur, Wash.

It is understood that during harvest season the Condon stores will be permitted to keep open Sundays so as to accommodate the farmers during the busy season.

Dr. Wood went to The Dalles yesterday to meet Wm. Cook on his return from Seattle with a runabout automobile. If the machine proves satisfactory, Dr. Wood may conclude to buy it.

A. G. West, general manager of the Portland branch of the International Harvester Co., was a Condon visitor Wednesday looking over the prospects in this vicinity for his company.

Dr. B. F. Butler and family expect to leave the middle of next week for an outing at Newport. The doctor will be away for about ten days and persons wishing to see him regarding dental work should make an appointment with him before Wednesday.

Clem News.

Harvest is in full blast.

J. O. Lewis, of Mikkalo, was a business visitor here Monday. Wilma Yancey left last Saturday for the Willamette valley.

Frank Welsch returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Portland.

D. O. Clark arrived here last Friday evening from McMinnville, and is hauling wheat for J. L. Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Wade were in town Tuesday evening. Henry Wilkins was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Lillian Ranney, of Condon, visited her sister, Mrs. Sherman Wade last Sunday.

Farmers in this section of the country are estimating their fall wheat yielding from 12 to 20 bushels to the acre.

Clem, August 3, Special.

Trapping a coyote at this time of the year is an unusual occurrence. Yet Ira Phillips trapped one last Tuesday night. He put a dead hen into a badger hole for bait and set the trap at the entrance of the hole, so on entering the coyote had no difficulty in finding the trap. But how the question is, what became of the hen? Did the coyote in the trap devour the fowl or was there another coyote that took desperate chances, for the bait was surely gone.

Some one made the remark that the coyote in the trap not to be partial to himself, kept the trap and gave his friend, the hen. A most generous coyote this fellow must have been! And not until he licked every cur dog in town, seven at a time, was he put out of misery.
