

Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal
 We occupy two floors 5 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.
 Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."
 Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free.

KNOWS THAT IT IS A LIVE AND INTERESTING PAPER

Noted Editor Would Like to Receive the Globe to Be in Touch with Country.

A letter received from Salt Lake shows how the attention of large publications is attracted to this section and how they know the live newspapers.

The communication follows: The Condon Globe,

Gentlemen:—Your publication, the "Globe" reaches us semi-occasionally. We find it a live, interesting paper covering a section of the Northwest that we want to keep in touch with.

We should like to receive the "Globe" regularly and under separate cover we are mailing you a current number of Goodwin's Weekly. We should like very much to have you put us on your exchange list, and in return will be pleased to put you on our mailing list.

Yours truly,
 L. S. GILLHAM,

CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLIC.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana; writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by the Condon Drug Co.
