GILLIAM COUNTY News Notes

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Country Correspondents.

Olex News.

G. Seaton Taylor was at Olex, Monday where he met D. B. Thomas, manager of the Kerr, Gifford & Co.'s Condon branch, who was called to this neighborhood on business.

Arthur Schilling is once again in the store Wade & Wade Co. after a visit in Condon and at Goldendale.

Ajax Atoms.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burdon have moved to the Ajax country and are getting ready to build on their homestead.

Mr. L. S. Hines was a visitor in this neighborhood last week.

Mrs. M. H. Eaton is visiting her parents for a few days.

Ed Palmer has started his threshing machine.

Miss Lela Burres is at home again after having spent several weeks in John Underwood's cook house.

At Fossil.

The Fossil flouring mill resumed operations the first of the week after being closed down for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Johnson and little daughter returned from Portland the latter part of last week, whither Mrs. Johnson went about a month ago on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. O. B. Robertson, but who is now greatly improved.

The colored gentleman has resigned his position in Johnson's livery barn and has gone to Condon.—Journal.

How About Your Locality?

The Globe wants a live news correspondent in each precinct in the county. Send The Globe the news and sign your name to the items. The name will not be printed, but the management wishes to know the author of the correspondence. Our correspondents at Clem and Ajax have been doing splendid work, and Clem has been placed anew on the map by the publicity it has received in The Globe, the newspaper that gives all the news worth printing. The Globe staff writes the news in a dignified, yet breezy and interesting, style, that appeals to newspaper readers. Let your locality be represented in Gilliam county's live newspaper.
