ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM CONDON AND GILLIAM COUNTY

Mrs. Ethel Dennis returned Monday evening from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Harold Hunt left Wednesday morning for Portland to visit his sister Mrs. Travis for a few days before going to Salem to attend the state fair. From Salem Harold will go on to Eugene to finish his last year at the state university.

The Oregon City Courier contains an extensive account of the Couture-Adams nuptials solemnized at Oregon City a week ago Wednesday. The affair was a most elaborate function over three hundred invitations having been sent out. The ceremony which united Miss Charlotte Adams and Stephen B. Couture in marriage was pronounced by the Right Rev. Father Abbott Thomas, of the Mt. Angel Monastery, the ring ceremony adding much to the impressiveness of the occasion. There were a number of guests from Portland and some of Oregon City's most prominent people participated in the event. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

J. E. Hunt, the Hardware Man, spent several days in the Rose City.

School books and other school supplies at Jackson's store.

Mrs. Archie Ferguson returned home on Monday from a month's visit with Miss Maud Coffin in Portland.

The regular council meeting which was to be held last Monday was postponed until next Monday evening on account of the absence of several of the councilmen.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church is planning to serve a supper on Thursday Sept. 17, beginning at 5:30 in the afternoon in one of the vacant buildings opposite the Gilliam County bank. A fine menu will be served for 35 cents and the affair will be worth attending. An "Apron Sale" will be held during the afternoon.

Have you seen that Harrow Attachment for GANG PLOWS shown by Hunt, the Hardware Man? Come and examine it.

Miss Evans, a nurse of The Dalles, who was the guest of Mrs. John W. Hire, returned home Monday.

Arthur Schilling came back to Condon Tuesday from Olex where he has been in charge of the implement and hardware department of Wade & Wade Co.

James W. Church, manager of the Gilliam County Mills, made a trip to Hood River over-Sunday to visit his family. Mr. Church is interested in some fruit land near Hood River.

HOOSIER DRILLS are better than others, and if you will give Hunt, the Hardware Man, a chance to "show you" he will do it and you will get an article which will do perfect work for you for many years. Easy and perfect in operation; easy on the pocket book.

Among the persons who passed through Condon Monday on their way to Fossil to attend the September term of circuit court in the Wheeler county seat were: Judge E. V. Littlefield, Attorneys W. H. Wilson and H. S. Wilson, of The Dalles, Court Stenographer Geo. Dufur of Portland and G. Berriam of Moro.

Amusements.

"By the Swanee" that beautiful southern drama, was admirably portrayed by the Walters & Christ Co., at the local play house last evening before a large and appreciative audience. The play should be called "Roanoke" for it is the central character of the piece. Miss Matthews played "Roanoke" well, as the blind girl she was exceptionally fine. Fred Walters did good work and his impersonation of the stingy, cold-hearted, murderous, miser was strong. Miss Hilda Graham and the other members of the company carried their roles satisfactorily. The company delivers the goods. See it tonight!

Miss Hilda Graham.

Says The Dalles Chronicle: "From start to finish, the drama 'Dora Thorne' was portrayed well at the Vogt last night to an appreciative audience. Every character was so well taken that it is not possible to say which one was the best. The play is full of heart interest and thrilling situations that were carried out with vim and rush so there were no dull moments. Every actor had his lines letter-perfect and each one seemed specially fitted for the part taken. The play was given well in every detail and deserved a better house." This play will be presented at the local play house tonight. The sale of tickets was brisk this afternoon and the attendance promises to be large.
