ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM CONDON AND GILLIAM COUNTY

C. L. Hogmire and wife left Condon Thursday morning for their new home at Irrigon where the former has been appointed station agent. He had been connected with the local office for several months.

Miss Mabel Palethorpe accompanied by Mrs. E. P. Mahaffey at whose home she had been a guest for a week returned to Portland yesterday morning.

Mrs. Elma Case and daughters have returned from a pleasant trip to Missouri. They made the journey home by way of Idaho, and stopped at Shoshone for a brief visit.

—If you have anything to trade exchange, rent or sell, see to it that you use The Globe Wants.

Amos and Dan Hawes of Spray, were Condon visitors this week. They brought over forty head of cattle which they sold to C. E. Reynolds, the cattle buyer who shipped nine carloads of cattle to Portland yesterday. The cattle were purchased in the vicinity of Spray and Winlock. While in Condon Mr. Hawes renewed his subscription to the Globe.

Jack Lancaster is here to open a real estate office.

Z. Keys who has been visiting relatives in the southern part of the county returned home to Salem yesterday morning.

The Apron sale and supper held under the auspices of the ladies of the Congregational church yesterday was a success socially and financially.

The Gilliam County Milling Co. through its manager, James W. Church announces that it will give a sample of flour to any woman who wishes to compete for the best loaf of bread at the Mayville fair. Flour may be had at the mill free of charge by calling on the manager's office.

Temporary Quarters of the Gilliam County High School---The Court House

Gone to College.

A number of Condon young people have gone to college to take up their studies anew. Harold Hunt is a senior at the University of Oregon; Harry and Earle Murphy, Oberlin College, Ohio; Herbert Schilling, Pacific University, Forest Grove; L. L. Taylor, veterinary college, Chicago; Ray Tracy, Leland Stanford Jr. University.

Portland Livestock Show.

The Portland Country Club and Livestock Show opens next Monday and continues all the week. It promises to be the largest showing of livestock ever gathered at one time in the Pacific Northwest, not excepting the great exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The speed contests will be the fastest on the coast; the great mile-track is said to be without a parallel; the transportations to and from the grounds will be excellent. The amphitheater built upon steel trusses, the first of its kind in Oregon, is already completed.

The premium list has been out for some time.

Mark Portwood and Frank Golden, two Condon far-famed sportsmen, went to Rock Creek Wednesday with the avowed intention of bringing home enough ducks to feed the entire population for at least a week but according to all reports the people would have fared scantily as one thin, little teal duck is all they bagged.

An array of bargains, sterling qualities and lowest prices. The S. B. Barker Co.

Exhibitors, Attention!

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Mayville fair the matter of the premiums paid to exhibitors last year. A number of checks issued as premium money have not yet been cashed. If these are not presented for payment within 30 days, the committee will understand that the parties holding the same do not wish the money but prefer to have the several amounts returned to the Fair Fund.

How About Your Locality?

The Globe wants a live news correspondent in each precinct in the county. Send The Globe the news and sign your name to the items. The name will not be printed, but the management wishes to know the author of the correspondence. Our correspondents at Clem and Ajax have been doing splendid work, and Clem has been placed anew on the map by the publicity it has received in The Globe, the newspaper that gives all the news worth printing. The Globe staff writes the news in a dignified, yet breezy and interesting, style, that appeals to newspaper readers. Let your locality be represented in Gilliam county's live newspaper.

"OREGON BUILDERS"

ARE YOU DOING WHAT YOU CAN TO POPULATE YOUR STATE?

OREGON NEEDS PEOPLE—settlers, honest farmers, mechanics, merchants, clerks, people with brains, strong hands and a willing heart—capital or no capital.

The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co.

is sending tons of Oregon literature to the East for distribution through every available agency. Will you not help the good work of building Oregon by sending us the names and addresses of your friends who are likely to be interested in this state? We will be glad to bear the expense of sending them complete information about Oregon and its opportunities.

COLONIST TICKETS will be on sale during September and October from the East to all points in Oregon. The fares from a few principal cities are:

From Denver	$30.00	From Louisville	$41.70
" Omaha	30.00	" Cincinnati	42.20
" Kansas City	30.00	" Cleveland	44.75
" St. Louis	35.50	" New York	55.00
		From Chicago	38.00

TICKETS CAN BE PREPAID

If you want to bring a friend or relative to Oregon, deposit the proper amount with any of our agents. The ticket will then be furnished by telegraph.
