ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. aud Mrs. W. L. Barker are spending the week in Salem in attendance at the state fair.

Mrs. Edward Curran was called to Portland Monday by the illness of her brother-in-law, S. P. Shutt, formerly of this city, who had to undergo a surgical operation at one of the hospitals. Mr. Shutt is the editor of the Drain Nonpareil. The operation is reported to have been successful.

Miss Lillian Ranney has returned from her vacation and will receive pupils in music. Any one interested may call. Residence studio, corner Summit and Church Streets.

Joe Peschka who has been working in the Farr Bros. Meat market during the past year, left Monday morning for a brief visit in the Rose City from which place he expects to go to Los Angeles to spend the winter.

A. Schilling is in the city from Condon.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Mart Blakeley who has been with a band of sheep in the Mt. Hood reserve came to Condon on Tuesday evening's train.

Mrs. M. M. McKinney, of Rock Creek, was visiting in Condon the fore part of the week.

Miss Ethelwyn Albright, of Hood River, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. James W. Church this week.

F. T. Hurlburt, of the Condon National Bank, was a Portland visitor during the week.

In the Condon Globe, a paper published at Condon, Ore., we notice the adv. of the Condon Drug Co. with G. E. Swafford, as manager. Mr. Swafford was a former business man of Elgin and made many friends during the years he was in business in this city. Success to you, George, in your new location..—Elgin Recorder.

Wm. Cook and Phil Morrill were among the Condonites who made a pilgrimage to Salem to see the ponies gallop on Lone Oak track at the state fair grounds.

Jack Lancaster went to Portland Monday after spending a few days in this city. He expects to engage in tha real estate business in Portland in connection with the sale of Gilliam county wheat lands.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wasco County Electric & Water Power Co. was held the latter part of last week in the Condon National Bank building. Those present besides the local members were H. J. Martin, M. W. Gill, R. A. Hollenbeck, C. D. Charles, O. B. Hataway, all of Portland, and G. S. Carpenter, of Fossil. Routine business was transacted but nothing could be obtained for publication.

Subscribe for the Globe! It's newsy every week, because it gives the news while it is news.

(Crowded out of last issue.)

The real estate market was active the past week. Jonh A. Miller, of Rock Creek, purchased the George Gibbons ranch located in the Mayville neighborhood. The sale was made by M. Fitzmaurice and E. Curran, who refused to give the price paid.

D. B. Thomas sold his Ferry Canyon ranch of 800 acres to L. Couture. The price paid was $20 per acre.

Wade & Thomas have sold their ranch three miles east of town, to Cooney and Eaton. The price paid was $25 per acre.

Dora Thorne—A Fine Play.

The largest crowd that has assembled at the local play house this season greeted the Walters & Christ Stock Co. in their presentation of "Dora Thorne," last Saturday evening. The title role was splendidly interpreted by Miss Hilda Graham. There is a naturalness about Miss Graham's work which gives it strength and finds favor with the audience. Her enunciation is clear and she reads the most emotional passages without ranting. She is destined to win a high place among Pacific coast actresses. Miss Graham was at one time with the Baker Stock Co. in Portland. C. Cyril Broke who played "Ronald Earle" did so in fine style. Miss Matthews as "Lady Valentine Chartreus" did some clever acting and Miss Murray as "Letitia Earle" was pleasing. Hugh Bennett gave one of the best impersonations of the evening. His "Stephen Thorne" was a type cleverly portrayed. The other characters were satisfactory and the play as a whole was thoroughly enjoyable.
