COURT CONDON, NO. 54, P. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

It's fair time. At The Dalles, at Walla Walla, at Spokane, and throughout the various counties of Oregon, displays of fruits, grains and live stock have been made the past week. It's fair time and we have just participated in a most successful county fair at the thriving town of Mayville, our neighbor. The support given those fairs is more generous than it has been in years and this same spirit was displayed at our own local fair. A year ago, Condon was scantily represented at the Mayville fair; this year large delegations went to see the exhibits on both days.

To the rancher, the stockman, the farmer there is more to the county fair than the mere display of farm products. It is the test time of his year's work. It is a contest for superiority by which will be measured to a certain extent the success of the past twelve months, for his best efforts are pitted against those of every other exhibitor at the fair and the award of the judges means the greatest victory or the greatest disappointment of the year.

To the successful exhibitor, victory is spelled on the strip of gilt-lettered blue or red ribbon which is presented to him by the judges. After all the test of the real success of a fair, big or small, is not to see how many exhibits and displays can be crowded into a pavilion but to reveal the number of progressive and enterprising farmers there are in a certain locality. The Mayville fair has shown who the "live ones" are.

Oklahoma has made it a misdemeanor for any person to point a weapon loaded or unloaded at another. When all of the states have followed its example and added to the list of criminals the man-who-rock-the-boat and the man who sells cap pistols, we shall be on the high road toward civilization, says a paragrapher.

"If I am elected President I propose to devote all the ability that is in me to the constructive work of suggesting to Congress the means by which the Roosevelt policies shall be clinched."
