COURT CONDON, NO. 54, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

Many perhaps remember the prophecy of some calamity howlers a few months ago predicting a sad future for the Wheat City, that many of the store buildings would be in sore need of renters. Do they now realize that their prophecy has come to naught and that since that time nine buildings have been filled and that the owners are now enjoying a revenue from rent much larger than before? Also that the majority of the newly occupied buildings are located on the east side of Main street, and to still further ridicule such prediction that a new up-to-date livery building is now under construction on that very side of Main street, that the imposing brick structure—the home of the St. Thomas Aquinas Academy—is nearing completion, while other places of business may be started within the next few months. Elmgain the tailor, Lancaster the real estate man, Lane the restaurant man, Shelton the real estate man, Thouvenel the second-hand furniture man, the Condon Athletic Club, Hire the livery man, Andrews the bowling alley man, Barr of the American theatre, Brown the drayman, Hilderbrand the feed stable man the S. B. Couture Fuel Co., and the promoters of the proposed electric railway line, must all have thought differently or must not have consulted the knockers. The Wheat City is growing in spite of the prediction and has a bright future.

Somebody is going to be elected president of the United States in a few days. It may be said with safety that it will not be Hisgen, or Watson, or Debs. The country will survive either horn of the dilemma. Both parties are vociferating their confidence in the result. This is customary. However, it is the duty of every voter to cast his ballot on the third of November.

Only seventeen football enthusiasts were placed hors du combat in a recent game. Is it possible that the sport may be degenerating and tending to effeminacy?

Judge Taft announces that his Administration will not be spectacular, but one of enforcement of the law. Only evil doers need fear the fulfillment of that promise.

The Taft smile has become famous. It is the genial herald of progressive prosperity.

"If I am elected President I propose to devote all the ability that is in me to the constructive work of suggesting to Congress the means by which the Roosevelt policies shall be clinched."

Jno Chandler received a Hart Parr Gasoline Traction Engine this week to do his plowing on his ranch near here. Whether it is a success or not is yet to be demonstrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wade and little son were here Wednesday on their way to Portland.

Fossil Items

Mrs. Gertrude Noland and mother, Mrs. M. C. Spear of Fossil were in Condon Monday. They took the train Tuesday for Hood River where they expect to make their home in the future.

Mrs. Mabel Smith of this city left Wednesday for eastern Washington.

A large number of Caledonians from this city and vicinity are in Condon celebrating the annual Caledonian festivities.

Gove-Lamb

A very pretty wedding occurred on Wednesday at 12 o'clock at the home of A. B. Lamb in this city. Dr. Howard Gove and Miss Abie Lamb were united in marriage. Both young people are residents of this city. They left on the Condon stage Thursday for Portland where they will spend two weeks before returning to Fossil.
