Election predictors can now take a long rest—and give the rest of us one.

Well, Well, Mr. Bryan, Henry Clay tried it three times, and never made it. And his place in history is secure.

Now it is said that President Roosevelt will be a candidate for the Senate to succeed Senator Platt of New York. It is also reported that Mr. Bryan will be sent to the Senate from Nebraska. The Roosevelt policies with Taft in the White House and Bryan and Roosevelt on the Senate floor should have some show.

On next Thursday the people of this grand country of ours will give thanks for all the blessings and prosperity enjoyed during the past year. President Roosevelt has designated the 26th of November as a day of general Thanksgiving and prayer, and on that day "recommends that all people shall cease from their daily work, and in their homes or in their churches meet devoutly to thank the Almighty for the many and great blessings they have received in the past and to pray that they may be given the strength to order their lives so as to deserve a continuation of these blessings in the future." In his proclamation the President says, "The growth in wealth and population has surpassed even the growth in territory. Nowhere else in the world is the average of individual comfort and material wellbeing so high as in our fortunate land."

Eastern Oregon sheepmen are preparing to bring a strong pressure to bear upon the next legislature to enact another scalp bounty law, especially as to coyotes, which have lately become more destructive of sheep than for years past. There will be protest again from the farmers and the cattlemen and orchardists who consider the coyote as a friend rather than a foe because he destroys not only sheep but rabbits, which are destructive of fruit trees, alfalfa fields, grain fields and gardens. The movement for a bounty on coyote scalps will find considerable support now in western Oregon, where this predacious beast is becoming numerous, as he never has been before. There was a scalp bounty law for awhile, and it was a source of so much fraud, to say nothing of very heavy expense even if the frauds had not been practiced, that it was repealed. Such a law now would entail a heavy cost upon the taxpayers, yet it might be a profitable investment. The sheepmen of eastern Oregon recognize the fact that they would be especially benefitted, and propose to pay half the cost; they ask for a bounty of $1.50 on coyote scalps, agreeing to pay 75 cents themselves, the state to pay the rest. —Oregon Journal.

M. A. McMurry arrived in this city last week to visit for a week or two with friends. It will be remembered that he was formerly clerk in the Grande Hotel in Arlington but has been of late in charge of the harness department at the Chemawa Indian Reservation.

Chas. Hein of Mayville was a caller at this office last week and left us some sausages as a maker of which Mr. Hein is famous.

Forty volumes, Condon's public schools apportionment from the state, were recently added to the school library, which already numbered about two hundred volumes.

Frank Crawford moved his family from the Eberle house on Monday.

Wm. Farr has bought the Eberle residence and one lot. He moved his family the fore part of the week.
