ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Della Randall of Olex, who has been the guest of relatives during the past week, returned home yesterday. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Mildred Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hunt went to Portland yesterday morning to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Travis. Their son, Harold, who is attending the University of Oregon, joined the family reunion.

F. E. Reynolds of Gwendolen was in town Wednesday and while here made a pleasant call at this office, renewing his subscription to the Globe. He expressed himself as being much pleased with the Globe and said it is the best news medium in this section of the state.

Wayne Grider stopped us on the street this week and ordered the Globe sent to his address for the coming year. They all appreciate a real newspaper.

J. B. White left for the Dalles on Wednesday, where he expects to spend Thanksgiving day. He will stop in Arlington long enough to shoot a few geese.

A crew of loggers for the new saw mill of the Arlington Lumber Co. on Thirty-mile, were in town Wednesday on their way to their work. While in town they purchased several wagon loads of supplies from our merchants.

W. A. Campbell returned Tuesday from a week's business trip to Portland, The Dalles and Heppner.

It is reported that R. R. Butler will locate in Moro to practice law and his office will be in the rooms formerly occupied by Judge Littlefield in the new brick block—Grass Nalley Journal. When seen the first of the week Mr. Butler said that in all probability he would open an office at Moro, but would conduct it as a branch of the office in this city.

A fire alarm was turned in on Monday evening as a small fire had been discovered in the Dams livery barn. Mr. Dams discovered the blaze in time to put it out before any damage was done. A fire which had been started in the stove, caused a coat hanging on the wall near the stove pipe to catch on fire and had it not been for the timely arrival of the proprietor a large blaze might have resulted. Chas. Harrison first attempted to turn in an alarm from the box at the Palace Hotel corner but as it did not respond, made a run for the fire bell at the city hall.

Among the things on which chances are being sold on for the coming Bazaar is a 2,000 mile book, good in Oregon, Washington and Idaho on the lines of the O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific. This book is good for a year. Its good for five round trips to Portland and return with over a hundred miles left.

Dr. Bancroft-Lewis Coming!
Dr. Bancroft, the psychologist, has been secured by the public schools to give two of his famous lectures in our city. The series of lectures he will give will be intensely interesting and useful information. He is a talented gentleman of pleasing personality. He possesses the rare faculty which enables the clever lecturer to make what he has to say interesting in the highest degree. His powerful discourse on "Hoodooos" will be an interesting and educational treat as the study of mental phenomena has assumed gigantic proportions, and it is well to get information of the presumed to be supermundane right from fountain head as Dr. Bancroft is and has been for years considered an authority in the realm of psychic research.

Dr. Bancroft's series of lectures and entertainments throughout appeal to the higher capacities of the intellect, and the size of his audience should afford a pretty active index to the element of his progress in any community. The features of entertainment, in which the doctor is assisted by D. Lillian Lewis, is of highest order of merit.

The public school of our city deserve great praise in securing such noted talent for our city, as they have arranged for them to appear under their auspices in our city for two evenings, Nov. 30th and Dec. 1st at the Opera House. The advance seat sale for this attraction has been exceptionally large, assuring a large audience.
