

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Miss Lillian Ebbert leaves on Monday for Eugene where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Lowney's Candies make the heart of your sweetheart glad.— Condon Drug Co.

Do you think you will get the free suit case, Xmas, at the Condon Drug Co?

Reserved seats for the Bancroft-Lewis lectures on Monday and Tuesday evenings given under the auspices of the Public Schools will be placed on sale at Paulings Drug Store tomorrow.

Frank Bennett, formerly of the Arlington Lumber Co., who has lately been working for the company at Blalock, Quinton and Arlington, spent several days in town this week. He went to Lone Rock for Thanksgiving and will spend several weeks on the home ranch.

If you will buy a Cutter and a string of bells of Hunt, the Hardware Man, he will guarantee the snow to use them with. Go see him.

Misses Scott and Seeley, of the Public schools, went to Portland yesterday morning to spend the Thanksgiving vacation.

We have a good variety of buggies and hacks, fully guaranteed at lowest prices, by Hunt, the Hardware Man.

The Saturday evening club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Wood on last Saturday evening. After several piano selections by Miss Lillian Ranney and vocal solos by A. B. Robertson, all enjoyed "hearts" until a dainty luncheon was served by the young ladies.

Heating stoves, lower in price and better in quality than you will get elsewhere, are sold and guaranteed by Hunt, the Hardware Man.

The married ladies have organized a bowling team as also have the young ladies. The bowling alley has been reserved for them on Monday evenings of each week when the two sides will contest for honors.

Frank Crawford has purchased the Wayne Grider property in the southwest part of town and has moved his family there.

X-MAS—X-MAS—X-MAS

The largest assortment of holiday goods that ever came to Condon is now on display. Call and see them before going elsewhere and we are sure that we can please you and save you money. Goods for everybody at John Jackson's, Condon's leading confectioner and stationer.

Miss Grace Beeson visited in Mayville during the past week.

Mrs. N. N. Meek of Ferry Canyon left Monday morning for Ashland, Ore. She was accompanied as far as Portland by E. Curran.

Keep warm these cold evenings by using the old original Rock Springs Coal—a carload was received on Monday by the Arlington Lumber Co.

Mayville Notes

Ruby and Harry Santo were Fossil visitors last Friday.

Miss Julia Thomas who has been teaching at Alville for some time, came over Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her parents.

S. H. Edwards moved his family from the McPherson ranch where he has been attending to his farming interests for the past few weeks, back to his home ranch near town last Friday.

W. N. Putnam left Sunday morning for the Willamette Valley where he goes in search of a permanent location for himself and family.

Mrs. Wright left Sunday for Portland where she will visit indefinitely with her sister. She was accompanied by her son Jesse.

Mrs. J. F. Thomas is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Crane.

Mrs. A. M. Smith has been suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia the past few days.

Miss Grace Beeson went to Condon Monday to remain over Thanksgiving.

G. B. Dukek and A. Beeson were visitors here from Condon a few days last week.

W. A. Darling, who has been here for several days, canvassing the Grange Hall, returned to Condon Saturday.

Mr. Brown, of Kent, was a business visitor here the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Stinchfield left Tuesday for Richmond, to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Clem News.

H. D. Randall of Olex was a visitor here last week.

Grant and Wilbur Wade transacted business here this week.

Jacob Larch was a passenger for Portland last Tuesday morning.

The Interior Whse. Co. received a car load of lumber this week.

S. C. Dodson and J. C. McEachern went to Olex Monday after fruit.

Miss Pearl Schott was in town last Friday on her way to The Dalles.

Clarence Bayles left for his home in Elgin, Oregon, Monday morning.

E. J. McPherson returned last Monday from a trip to Portland.

The Kerr Gifford Co. received a car load of "Snow Drift" flour this week.

Fred Raymond and wife of Pendleton spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Welshons.

Kenneth and Marsch Welshons attended the Thanksgiving Ball at Condon.

Miss Emma Anderson was a passenger to Condon Wednesday evening.

J. A. Towle of Rock Creek is hauling hay for Grant Wade this week. Mr. Wade will have about 100 tons baled, which he will deliver to the Kerr Gifford Whse. for storage.

The Raymond-Bell Co. which held down the boards at the Armory Hall last evening more than pleased the large audience with their rendition of the "Golden Giant Mine." The play was a most interesting one and the different members of the troupe did great justice to themselves. Tonight the company will render "The Missouri Girl" which has been a tremendous success all over the United States during the past seven years. It is a good play entertaining and laughable and all should attend to give support to one of the best troupes that ever came to Condon. "Yankee Doodle Boy" on tomorrow night and Sunday evening "The Holy Cross" an extra fine production which few can afford to miss.
