COURT CONDON, NO. 34, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

The residents of Condon were again during the fore part of the week reminded of the dire need of a modern opera house. Those who were present at the entertainments on Monday and Tuesday evenings deserve much credit in patronizing the public school benefit. To sit for several hours in a cold building, with only two small oil stoves as an excuse for heating purposes on an extremely cold night, is no small task; and this with the opinion of those who had purchased tickets early but who did not attend on account of the poor heating equipment, only serve as more knocks on Condon's present accommodations for entertainment purposes. Condon has always been known as a good "show town," for the many good attractions always bring crowded houses. But how long will the people suffer for hours in order to have a little laugh, and how long, at the present rate that audiences are getting smaller and smaller, will Condon be able to secure outside talent? How such a building—with flimsy stage settings, without heating apparatus or other accommodations—can be called an opera house for a town of 1800 inhabitants is most surprising! It is said that the proprietor of the skating rink is remodeling his building into an opera house, and if proper alterations are made for the comfort of the patrons this improvement will be a godsend, while the proprietor will be hailed a benefactor to the community and his work rewarded by the patronage of the people.

It is not too early to remind the people of this vicinity of the annual rush of Christmas buyers, with the attendant exhaustion, which is bad enough for the buyers but a good deal harder on the clerks. Procrastination is not only the thief of time but also the source of much suffering, and the holiday purchases seem to mean a more formidable task every year. The many stores of this city have on hand large stock of Christmas goods and purchasers may just as well get busy now. Our business men, through these columns, offer most generous bargains. They give you many hints as to suitable presents and are ready to supply you now. Why not do your buying with these merchants who can give you the best in their stock at the present time?

Harping on those old sidewalks about town is not an old story, but may be if the marshal does his duty!

The American Theatre—an excellent and refined moving picture show every evening. Only 10 cents. Theatre on Main St., Condon.
