X-MAS—X-MAS—X-MAS

The largest assortment of holiday goods that ever came to Condon is now on display. Call and see them before going elsewhere and we are sure that we can please you and save you money. Goods for everybody at John Jackson's, Condon's leading confectioner and stationer.

C. A. Danneman came up from Clem Wednesday.

Fred Monroe of Arlington was a visitor in Condon last week, returning to Arlington on Monday.

Henry Neel returned Saturday from Portland where he went with a carload of fat hogs.

John Magee of Trail Fork was a passenger on the local Saturday for Portland. He will also visit in California before returning.

Chas. Kennedy, local agent for the Pacific Coast Elevator Co., has moved his office from the Gilliam County Mills to the Shelton & Co.'s real estate office on North Main street. He may now be found there and is ready to do business in the same courteous manner.

D. M. Walton's house west of Mayville burned to the ground on Monday night. Fred Brown has the place rented and was living in the house. It is not known what caused the fire.

Mrs. W. M. McKinney of Rock Creek was an incoming passenger on the local Wednesday evening.

Jas. Amend returned last week from Montana and will probably spend the winter here.

E. B. Deyoe, the traveling auditor of the O. R. & N., was in this city last week attending to the company's interests in this vicinity.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Henry Wilkins returned to his home near Clem Wednesday from a weeks visit in Portland.

Miss Grace McKinney of Blalock was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farr during Thanksgiving.

Miss Catherine Greiner spent several days in Portland during the past week.

The new livery barn of J. W. Hire is nearing completion and adds much to the appearance of east Main street.

Manager Thiessen of the Interior Warehouse Co. has had his office renovated during the past week until it presents an extremely neat appearance. The color scheme is dark green—paper and carpet. The work was done by W. A. Darling.

The Twin Falls County Poultry Association will hold its first annual show at Twin Falls, Idaho January 28-30. The competition is open to the world.

R. L. Hunt was in the city on Thursday. Mrs. Hunt and the children are now living at Pendleton. He ordered the Globe sent to his address there.

An evening's entertainment for only 10 cents. The moving pictures at the American theatre are perfect now and a pleasure to see.

R. Stanton spent the latter part of last week visiting with friends and relatives in this city and left on Saturday to return to his work at Alderdale, Wn. He is foreman of a warehouse building crew.

Lowney's Candies make the heart of your sweetheart glad.—Condon Drug Co.

A. J. Shelton & Co. are now prepared to handle farms and city property, in fact any and all kinds of real estate. Call at their office in the Wasson building on the east side of Main St.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to return our heartfelt thanks to all our friends who showed their kindness towards us during the time of the sickness and death of our son. Edward Morgan and family.

Advertised Letters

For the week ending Nov 29 letters as addressed below remain uncalled for at the Condon post-office:

- 1 Bishop, Mr. J.
- 2 Parnell, Mr. C. R.
- 3 Swift, Mr. Daer

These letters will be sent to the dead letter office Dec. 12, 1908, if not delivered before. In calling for the above, please say "advertised" giving date of list.

GUILTY OF COUNTERFEITING

Passing counterfeit money is no worse than some unknown worthless remedy for Foley's Honey and Tar, the great cough and cold remedy that cures the most obstinate coughs and heals the lungs—Condon Drug Co.

Lyman J. Gibson of Seattle arrived in Condon on Saturday last intending to buy sheep.

Dr. Donnelly returned Tuesday from a few days business visit in Portland.

E. C. Rogers and E. J. Clough made a trip to their mill during the fore part of the week.

Wilbur Pryor was in town Saturday to claim a nosebag and overalls, advertised in the Globe's found column. Does the Globe's "want column" give results, well, I should say! Mr. Pryor now lives near Clem having recently purchased the Nendel ranch. He still retains his Ferry Canyon ranch, but moved to Clem on account of the school advantages. Mr. Pryor has 780 acres of fine growing grain on the two places and speaks highly of the crop outlook.

Subscribe for the Globe! It's newsy every week, because it gives the news while it is news.

MRS. McRANEY'S EXPERIENCE

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up all hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me—Condon Drug Co.
