ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Quite a brilliant social event was an informal reception given by a number of young men in Wade's Hall, Olex, Thanksgiving eve. An elaborate literary and musical program was followed by a banquet consisting of several courses, served by Misses Grace Randall, Margaret Ashenefter, Faith Hurt, Lula Mobley and Leta Huey.

Beginning with next week's issue, a certain space in this paper will be reserved each week for the weather report of Charles H. Williams, the local observer. Many of our subscribers have spoken highly of this feature in a manner which proves beyond a doubt that the observations of local weather conditions is very important.

A full line of electric lamps, the latest improvements at lower prices than ever sold in Condon before. See Hunt, the Hardware Man about it.

The Athletic Club has made a schedule as follows: Basketball and indoor baseball on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons. All other periods will be taken up by Handball and general gymnasium work. A set of wall appliances will soon be added to the apparatus of the Club. New members are being elected at each meeting of the board. The ladies are allowed the privileges of the gymnasium on Thursday afternoons and the School girls on Saturday afternoons. Basketball games will be secured in the near future and a handball tournament will also be given.

IGO GRANGE TO HOLD BIG FAIR

The Igo Grange will hold a big Grange Fair at Allville on Friday December the 18th. This is the third year that this grange has held this fair and heretofore it has always been a decided success and everyone should help to make a greater success of this one. The fair will open for business at one o'clock sharp, supper will be served at six to all those present. A dance will be given in the evening with a supper served at midnight. The special features of the fair will be a doll booth and a candy booth. There will also be a miscellaneous booth where a person may buy almost anything. This will be a good chance to secure Xmas presents as many beautiful and useful articles will be on sale. The proceeds go to the benefit of the Igo Grange and everyone should help "boost" as much as possible.

Snow coming, — cutters on top, — come and get one quick while Hunt, the Hardware Man, has some left.

RELIABILITY!

With this coming X-mas begins the fourth Christmas Season of the well known Exclusive Jewelry Establishment of WILLIAMS THE JEWELER Expert Optician

The main factor in a reliable house is the length of its existence, its motto and past record. Four years ago this jewelry establishment was started under the name of Williams the Jeweler, and every day ever since the same name has held forth and it is today the only house that has made a success of the jewelry and optical business in Condon. The reasons that have made this possible is the motto we use in business, "Honesty, Reliability and Low prices," while half a dozen other names of jewelry firms change as with the new moons.

GRATITUDE

Demands that before saying anything further I wish to thank my patrons and the public in general for their kind support and the confidence they have placed in me and I wish to say that I will make every effort as ever to give one and all the same treatment that has always characterized my business and made it what it is today, The Largest Jewelry House in Eastern Oregon.

LOOK IT OVER.

I have for your inspection this X-mas the largest line of the latest goods bought directly from the East and selected by myself while I was East, thereby assuring you the latest and best goods as ever at prices defying competition, quality considered.
