NEWS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. J. A. Scott returned from Portland last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Smith of Arlington, was a visitor here the fore part of the week.

E. M. Larkin, agent for the Best Manufacturing Co., was in this city during the fore part of the week attending to the company's interests.

A crowd of young people held a social party at the home of Wm. Harp on Friday night of last week and a most enjoyable time is reported.

Henry Fletcher came up from The Dalles on Saturday last to attend to business interests in this vicinity.

Miss Georgia Hunsacker of Turner is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Horner. Miss Hunsacker formerly worked in the post office here.

C. N. Smith, traveling agent for the Holt Manufacturing Co. arrived in this city on Saturday. That Mr. Smith also recognizes the Globe as a superior advertising medium is evident from the fact that he too has an ad in this issue.

A. A. Townley has added an upstairs addition to his Home Bakery and Grocery which will be used exclusively for chinaware, a full stock of which is now on hand.

A professional nurse arrived from Portland on Friday last to assist Dr. Donnelly in the case of Mrs. Lee Davis who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Darling spent Friday evening with Mr. Darling's parents in this city, returning on Saturday to their home in Portland.

Miss Mabel Barker pleasantly entertained the Saturday Evening Club on last Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Barker, the evening being changed on account of other events taking place on the regular night. Miss Barker is a charming hostess and provided entertainment for her guests by games, recitations and songs, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

The basketball games which were played in the gymnasium on Saturday evening were successful in every way. The attendance was good and the spectators were well pleased with the exhibition. The High School game between Georgia Searcy's team and Maud Stevens' team was won by the former by a score of 8 to 4. Mary Farnsworth and Veva Portwood did good work for their team while Tillie Dams and Maud Stevens were instrumental in securing their baskets. The game between the gymnasium teams was interesting and hard fought. C. N. Laughridge was captain of one team and Harry Fitzmaurice of the other. Laughridge's team won by a score of 7 to 6 although during the first half it looked like a walk away for the other team. Scores for the winners were made by C. Fitzmaurice, Harlan and Parman and for the other team by Donnelly, Taylor and H. Fitzmaurice. A game will be played with Heppner in the near future and other games will be played with outside teams.

A PERSONAL APPEAL
