NEWS OF THE WEEK

Don't forget the big dance at the skating rink on Christmas night. It's to be given by the Condon Athletic Club.

Geo. Miller of Mayville was in town Sunday and left on Monday for an extended trip to the old home at Manchester, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Church and family were passengers on the local Monday. Mrs. Church and the babies going to Hood River where they will visit during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Albright. Mr. Church accompanied them as far as Arlington and returned the same evening but will join his family on Christmas day.

In another column of this issue of the Globe will be found the ad of the Bonville Western Monthly. This magazine is published in Portland well filled with western stories, but a part of the space of each issue is being devoted to short write-ups of localities in the northwest referring particularly to the industries and possibilities of the various sections, also giving a short history of their advancement in the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Welch arrived in this city the latter part of last week from Portland where Mr. Welch has been working in a barber shop.

"Trip the light fantastic" with the Condon Athletic Club on Christmas night in the Skating rink. The Wheat city orchestra of five pieces will furnish the music, the rink is being remodeled and will be very comfortable, and the supper will be served at the Hotel Oregon—it will be the biggest event held in this city this year and at the same time you will be aiding a good cause.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Burres on Sunday of this week.

The Home Bakery delivery wagon with its new top bearing the firm's name is a neat and business-like addition to that enterprising firm.

MRS. McRANEY'S EXPERIENCE

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up all hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me—Condon Drug Co.
