PUBLIC BUILDINGS

The Court House

The Court House of Gilliam County which was built in 1903 at a cost of $17,000.00 is a building of which any county seat might well be proud. It is equipped with all modern conveniences. The offices are all finely finished throughout. At present the quarters of the Gilliam County High School are established in this building.

St. Thomas Aquinas Academy

The St. Thomas Aquinas Academy, which is almost completed, will be the handsomest private school building in this section of the state. It is built of Condon-made bricks in the old Spanish Mission style. The approximate cost is $35,000.00. It is built by the Catholics of Condon and Gilliam County and will be conducted under the auspices of the Dominican Sisters. The building is 64x98 feet and three stories high, as, since the plans were drawn, it was deemed advisable to leave out one story. It is to be heated by steam and lighted by electricity. J. N. Bayliss of Portland is the contractor in charge.

Condon Public Schools

The public school building, which is situated in the eastern part of the city, when built in 1904 was large enough to accommodate all pupils, but so fast has Condon grown that it has been found necessary to utilize two other buildings beside the rooms in the Court House now occupied by the High School.

The Gilliam County High School was, by the vote of the people at the last election, located in Condon and a large modern building will be erected next year for this purpose.
