THE CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

Hundreds of copies of the Christmas number of the Globe—"The Gilliam County Booster," have found their way to all parts of the country during the past week. The fact that all the extra copies were sold on the very day of going to press shows the general appreciation of that issue, and on every side words of praise were given the Globe editors.

With such issues, giving a truthful description of the country's resources, can be readily seen the direct advantage of mailing such papers to friends. It can have but one result and that is—advertising Gilliam Co. in the best possible manner.

The Globe editors, with the beginning of the New Year, expect to give their readers more news than ever before and with them it means all the news. Remember, the Globe sets the pace and will be the most widely read weekly in this section of Eastern Oregon.

We see by the Washington Co. papers, that a big "boom" is on in Forest Grove. We wonder if they got their idea from the Gilliam County Improvement Association.

Fifty school children from Chicago are to be brought to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition next year if the plan suggested by Secretary Tom Richardson of the Oregon Development League is carried out. They will also visit Portland and other cities in this state and when they return home will write letters telling of the trip and what they saw in the Northwest. Exhibits of the woods of this section, with industrial and scenic pictures, have been used in the Chicago schools, made up into sets and circulated from one school to another, in the teaching of geography.

The Panama Canal, in spite of optimistic utterances with reference to the progress made in its construction, is evidently a source of anxiety in Washington and throughout the country. The law imposes on the President the duty of building the canal. It is the most Herculean work attempted in history, and the incoming president, upon whom the burden is about to fall, is wise in his effort to satisfy himself that progress is being made in the right way. It is known that he intends to visit Panama again in January and that he will take with him a number of engineering officers in no way connected with the work. It is characteristic of the President-elect to thoroughly understand any proposition that he has to take up and the country will doubtless profit by the careful inspection and study he is about to make.

Orange Fair at Alville.
By Mrs. J. R. Wells.

The Grange fair held at Alville on December, 18th, was a great success both financially and socially. The various booths, all tastefully decorated, made a cheerful appearance and the many articles of fancy work, burnt work, aprons, cushions, and many other things that were on sale were readily disposed of. The candy, china and doll booths all did equally well, and the grab bag was a great source of amusement throughout the afternoon and evening. Supper was served at six o'clock and at midnight and from the bounteous and delicious spread set before the people it can be truly said that there are some famous cooks in that order. The dance was well managed, good music was furnished and everybody went home saying, "It takes the Grangers to show us a good time."

Some time and somewhere out at space, DAN opened a SECOND HAND PLACE; This place was opened grand and neat in a building on MAIN STREET. He no doubt thought it would be grand to always have at the public's command Everything the people like, Even to a second handed bike.

Many other things he has embarked, Some things that came from Noah's Ark. I have old Cupboards and old stoves I have old Desks and Rubber Hose, I have some Iron and Brass Bods And some Wooden ones with fancy beads, Have Mattresses, Pillows and Springs And lots of other fancy things.

I have Diabes, Pots and Stew Pans, which women say are good, But I am sorry to tell you neighbor, I haven't any second hand wood. You can rely on what I've told you, Every word is staunch and true And if this does not suit you, I will sell you something NEW.

I can tell you just as well DAN will buy or sell, Come and see me if you can Dan, the second hand Man.
