Oregon Pioneer Dies At Lone Rock

Mrs. Sarah Hayes, an early Oregon pioneer, died at Lone Rock last Sunday evening.

The funeral was conducted in this city Wednesday by Rev. J. V. Crawford.

Sarah Hayes, whose maiden name was Capehart, was born near Jefferson City, Mo., November 14th, 1836. Her parents both died during her infancy. She crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852, and two years later, in 1854 was married to W. J. Haynes in Lane County. She and her husband settled at Myrtle Creek in Douglas county where they resided for a number of years. To them were born four sons and two daughters, all of whom are living but the youngest, the late Charles J. H. Hayes of this city. Her husband died just twenty years and six months before she answered the summons to join him in the great beyond. Besides she leaves twenty-six grand children and fourteen great grand children.

She came to Morrow county in 1877 and has resided here continuously ever since, and in consequence had a very wide acquaintance throughout this section of the country, especially among the older settlers, many of whom were the recipients of her kind and motherly ministrations in times of sickness and distress. ---Heppner Gazette.

As a result of the big dance given last Friday evening the Condon Athletic Club has added $40 more to their fast increasing treasury. The hall, which has been remodeled, afforded ample room for the large crowd. The Wheat City Orchestra furnished excellent music and words of praise were heard on all sides for this organization. The floor managers are to be commended for the efficient way in which they handled the crowd and made all strangers feel perfectly at home. The platform in the front of the hall was used to accommodate the spectators, of which there were about 45. An excellent supper was served at the Hotel Oregon. Dancing was kept up until a late hour and the crowd behaved themselves in a manner befitting the occasion. As a whole the dance was one of the most enjoyable social events held in Condon for many years.

Avery-Campbell

Announcements of the marriage of Delos Lee Avery to Blanche Jeanette Campbell have been received here. The event took place on Wednesday, December 23d, at Portland, and they are now at home to their friends at Marshfield, Oregon, where the groom is engaged in running a skating rink. Both parties are well known in this city. The Globe joins their many friends in wishing them success and happiness.

W. C. Reed left for Portland Tuesday morning, having sold his interest in the American Theatre to his partner, C. A. Barr, who in company with Fred Collins will continue the business.

For the past few weeks numbered coupons were given to all ladies attending the show and on Christmas night duplicates were put in a box and one drawn out. Miss Gertie Shaffer had the corresponding number and was presented with a watch, valued at $25.

We Test Your Eyes Free of Charge

When we say test we mean test. We don't hang a card on the wall and guess, or let you guess, at the glass you need. We have four infallible methods to determine the condition of your eyes. We have numerous patients who were improperly fitted elsewhere, after paying a big price for a rough guess. With the system we use, all possibility of error is entirely eliminated. Come in and let us prove to you that we can make good our statements. We will consider it a favor if you will allow us to demonstrate to you the correctness of our method by giving you a thorough examination free of charge.
