ANTI-ASSEMBLY REPUBLICANS VS ASSEMBLY REPUBLICANS

It has been charged from time to time by the assembly organs of the State that all good republicans should and would support the assembly candidates...

These men are in politics for the corporations and represent measures and things which are inconsistent with the rights of the people.

Under the primary law the peoples' candidates go into the field with the corporation candidates.

The eyes of the people of the United States have been turned upon the Insurgents of the West. It is many years since such a keen interest has been shown in politics by the masses of the people.

The first wave of insurgency was like a raffle upon an ocean, but it soon increased to alarming proportions and was then pounced upon by the corporation body-guards and the haughty insurgents read out of the republican party.

Will the anti-assemblyites (insurgents of Oregon) carry the day against the assembly (railroad and other corporate interests)? Will the corporation candidates, disguised in poor man's garb, be able to fool the people?

or support. If the support was equal they would each poll 10,000 votes. This causes a split of the people's or the anti-assemblyites' vote and assures success to the corporations.

This is a fine and shrewd game that the corporations are playing. They have divided the republican party into two wings, took their half and held it together, but made the other half scrap between themselves, and will step in and take the prize which is the bone of contention and then give them the horse laugh.

The primary law was made for the purpose of giving the people a square deal, and contemplates no such (3 shell and ball) game as is often practiced at circus tents to catch the unwary.

ARE THE PEOPLE GAINING POWER?

The eyes of the people of the United States have been turned upon the Insurgents of the West. It is many years since such a keen interest has been shown in politics by the masses of the people.

The first wave of insurgency was like a raffle upon an ocean, but it soon increased to alarming proportions and was then pounced upon by the corporation body-guards and the haughty insurgents read out of the republican party.

Will the anti-assemblyites (insurgents of Oregon) carry the day against the assembly (railroad and other corporate interests)? Will the corporation candidates, disguised in poor man's garb, be able to fool the people?

Before the assembly was held the O. R. & N. and other corporation candidates claimed that the primary law should not be sustained. After the assembly was held they saw that it was the primary law that the people demanded, and should be sustained, so they switched and claimed they were in favor of the primary law.
