

BACK FROM THE EAST

Chas. H. Williams, Condon's leading jeweler, & Optician, has returned from the eastern jewelry markets, where he has made his fall and holiday selection of his high grade goods, in all lines, kept in a first class, exclusive jewelry establishment. The goods will begin to arrive in a week or so and Mr. Williams will be pleased to show you the full line and to make you acquainted with the merits of the line.

OPTICAL WORK

As a great many patients are now crowding in to have their EYES examined for glasses I would ask those who live in town, and can do so, to come in the evening, as I am prepared to take care of them at any time. The store will be open until nine p. m.

LA MOTT COMEDY COMPANY COMING

American Theatre Presenting Good Attractions to the Public.

The La Mott Comedy Co., will be in this city next week and will show in the American Theatre. They will open on Thursday and will also play Friday and Saturday nights. This company has been very highly recommended by the press throughout the Northwest and there is no doubt that those who attend will get the worth of their money. They play both stock and vaudeville. Popular prices.

A. Mutt and his troupe of funsters who are playing at the American Theatre are giving general satisfaction. They opened on Wednesday night with a vaudeville and their productions are as good as can be seen anywhere at the low prices. The company is small but each member is a versatile performer. They will show each evening up to and including Sunday evening.

NOTICE

Having dissolved partnership we will during the next two weeks hold a closing out sale. All hats will be sold, at cost. The Crown Hat Shop. Mabel Pittman & Mrs. D. H. Cottmire Props.

ODDLY EXPRESSED.

Queer Ways in Which Ideas Are Sometimes Put into Words.

Curious ways of expressing ideas in English may be expected from foreigners, as, for instance, when the Frenchman, who made a call in the country and was about to be introduced to the family, said: "Ah, ze ladies! Zen I would before, if you please, wish to purify mine 'ands and to sweep mine hair."

A Scotch publican was complaining of his servant maid. He said that she could never be found when wanted. "She'll gang out o' the house," he said, "twenty times for once she'll come in."

A countryman went to a menagerie to examine the wild beasts. Several gentlemen expressed the opinion that the orang outang was a lower order of the human species. Hodge did not like this idea and, striding up to the gentleman, expressed his contempt for it in these words: "Pooh! He's no more of the human species than I be."

"Mamma, is that a spoiled child?" asked a little boy on seeing a negro baby for the first time.

A shop exhibits a card warning everybody against unscrupulous persons "who infringe our title to deceive the public." The shopman does not quite say what he means any more than the proprietor of an eating house near the dock, on the door of which may be read the following announcement conveying fearful intelligence to the gallant tars who frequent this port: "Sailors' vitals cooked here."—Philadelphia North American.

Force of an Oil Well.
Oil has been ejected from the Baku wells with such force and accompanied with so much sand that steel blocks twelve inches thick placed over the mouth of the well to deflect the flow were perforated in a few hours and had to be replaced. The casing with which the wells were lined was often torn to shreds and eventually collapsed, and hundreds of thousands of tons of sand which accumulated in the vicinity necessitated the services of large bodies of workmen.—London Mail.

A Safe Bet.
A man can never guess how big the hats or sleeves or skirts of women will be next season, but he stands ready to bet that no fashion center can make big shoes for women popular.—Ateblson Globe.

A Misnomer.
It is becoming daily more dangerous to refer to "the weaker sex" on account of the increasing doubt in the reader's mind which sex is meant.—London Saturday Review.
