RETURN HOME THROUGH THE SUNNY SOUTH

When you arrange your eastern trip be sure to include the Sunset Route through New Orleans, El Paso, Los Angeles and San Francisco for return. It is a splendid educational journey and at this time of the year especially delightful because so warm and comfortable. Every mile is through the sunny southland—the rice and cotton fields of Louisiana and Texas, the vast mirage mesas of New Mexico and Arizona, now spread with bright green, the orange groves and semi-tropic charm of California, miles and miles along the ocean shore, and several of the most interesting cities on the continent. Ask your local agent about it.

CONGREGATION'L CHURCH NOTES

Dr. Ferris went to Portland on Tuesday and returns to Condon on Saturday by the way of The Dalles and Arlington. On the coming Sunday morning the subject of the service is "What think Ye of Christ." In the evening "A care to a personal Test." Do not mistake. The class that meets in the parsonage is for both men and women. Last Sunday there were 25 in attendance.

Next Sunday it will be a young man's views of what business men owe to young men. Some have thought only men were welcome. This is a mistake, many ladies attend.

Madams Schilling, J. J. Portwood and Price are a committee to canvass for the organization of a Missionary Society. This society is not to draw from the Ugo Igo Club but is designed for members or other persons who wish to do missionary work and who are not otherwise associated with the activities of our church. Of course this precludes no one who may wish to work in both departments of the Church.

The Young Mens Club will have a banquet and fish supper on the evening of March 24th. There will be a fine program.

The Grangers of Gilliam County met at Condon March 11, and elected the following delegates to attend the state convention: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, of Igo Grange, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wade of Juniper Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Palmer were elected alternates for Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, John and Dora Madden were elected as alternates for Mr. and Mrs. Wade.

The County Sunday School Convention begins at Arlington at 2 p.m. today. The following delegates from the Congregational Church left for the river town this morning; Prof. J. C. Sturgill, Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Duncan, Herbert and Katherine Clarke.

"Shang" Laughrige went to Portland today to see his best girl and take a week's needed rest.

John Scott is in town this week looking after his business interests.

Miss Myrtle Ferguson returned to Portland today after visiting with her parents in this city.

Wm. Head of Rock Creek was in this city on Monday.

Business Locals

The Summit Hotel serves chicken dinners every Sunday. They are the best in the city.

STEAM LAUNDRY OPENS MONDAY

Wm. Shaw, proprietor of the Condon Steam Laundry, has been remodeling the fixtures of the building and expects to be open for business next Monday. He is having a well drilled on the south side of the building and in case of a shortage of city water will have a supply of his own to fall back on. He has employed Mr. Fairchild, formerly a proprietor of a laundry in Portland which recently burnt down, to superintend the laundry work. Mr. Shaw will gather the laundry and deliver the same as heretofore and deserves the undivided patronage of the people of Condon providing his work is satisfactory.

A. D. Hopper and J. W. Boothe of Spokane were in the Wheat City this week the former returning home this morning. Mr. Cameron of Portland, who has charge of the selling of stock of the Buckhorn ranch is also here.

A. M. Brown, fire inspector for the O-W R&N Co., inspected the local depot and roundhouse on Tuesday and reported everything in good shape.

Dick Grant left on Wednesday for Portland where he will spend a few days on business.

LEVI L. COLBY DIES AT CECIL

Levi L. Colby died at Cecil on March 10th, of pneumonia, following an attack of lagrippe.

He was born near Hooksett, N. H., 71 years ago. He was one of the few remaining pioneers, having settled on Willow Creek in 1874, forming a partnership with Chas., D. Sennett in the stock business, which continued some twenty years.

Mr. Colby came to Cecil in 1903, embarking with M. V. Logan in a small mercantile business which continued until his death.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. Jane Morey, age 84 years, who lives in New Hampshire, and a brother, Wm. Colby, of Smmerville, Mass., besides numerous nieces and nephews, none of whom he has seen for fifty years, and a host of friends, being loved, honored and respected by all who knew him.

The remains were brought to Arlington for interment, funeral services being conducted by Rev. G. S. Moorhead.—Arlington Record.

Lee Shellman was a passenger on Thursday's train bound for Portland.

F. T. Hurlburt was an Arlington bound Passenger on yesterday's train.
