

TRY TO REORGAN- IZE BOOSTERS

James G. Sayer, field secretary of the Oregon Development League, will be in Condon about April 23. He is now on a tour of Eastern and Central Oregon that will occupy about six weeks, during which he will visit the commercial bodies in the various cities and will do what he can to help them in their work.

Although he is not an orator, Mr. Sayer is thoroughly informed on the work of the Oregon Development League and his visit should be a great benefit to each commercial organization in the district to be covered.

Mr. Sayer will collect information in the different sections, as well as give advice. He wants to become better informed on the various districts of the state he has not yet visited personally, in order to be of greater service to these communities. On his present trip he will see much that is new to him and will add largely to his store of knowledge about Oregon.

Some commercial clubs of the interior need reviving, the membership having allowed the organization to languish, and these will be given attention by Mr. Sayer. He will attempt to arouse enthusiasm and give the clubs a new start wherever possible.

There is also a chance for many new clubs to be started in Eastern Oregon. That country is now settling up so rapidly that the progressive communities are turning their attention to organizing commercial bodies and they want pointers as to how to proceed so as to get the best results from their efforts and how to co-operate most successfully with the Oregon Development League. The work of the league will be explained in detail by Mr. Sayer and every possible assistance given in helping along newly formed clubs.

Postoffice at Spray will be moved into the Courier building.

Dr. Ferris, pastor of the Congregational Church sprung a surprise on his audience Easter Sunday when he made them acquainted with the fact that the Church was about to purchase four lots downtown for the purpose of locating a new Church building. The lots selected are the south four of the C. S. Parmer property immediately in front of the High School. A lady whose name is withheld has consented to loan the Church $300 of the purchase price of the lots and the directors in about twenty minutes time last Sunday found several business men who were willing to make up the remaining $150. Accordingly the Church voted Sunday morning to authorize Treasurer Geo. Parman to close the deal for the lots. In a month or so the old building will be moved to the new lots and used until a new edifice can be erected. On the completion of the new building the frame structure will be turned into a public reading and rest room. This move on the part of the new Church should receive all possible support at the hands of the citizens.

Circuit Judge Parker handed down his decision this morning in the case of Chas. Hein and wife vs J. H. Shields of Portland. This case was tried before Judge Parker here about six weeks ago. Hein was given judgment for everything prayed for and also the costs and disbursements of his suit.

The case hung on the validity of a transfer of a deed and Judge Parker held that the parties had not gotten together in a lawful manner in the transfer of said deed. Weinke & Kavanagh assisted by Farrington & Farrington of Portland were attorneys for Hein, while Joseph and Haney of Portland assisted by Bowerman & Shanks appeared for the defendant.

Seldom is it our pleasure to announce such a happy occurrence as took place last Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. H. A. Wood when her daughter Emma, was united in marriage to W. A. Campbell of this city. The ceremony took place at 7.30 a. m. and was performed by Dr. A. Frank Ferris and was witnessed by only a few immediate relatives. The Wood home was beautifully decorated on this Easter Sunday with Easter Lillies, smilax and narcissus which added charm to the occasion. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of silk while the groom appeared at his best in the conventional black. Immediately following the ceremony the guests sat down to an elegant wedding breakfast prepared by Mrs. Wood. After the breakfast the newlymarried couple left for Arlington via auto where they caught the afternoon train to Pendleton. On their honeymoon they are also visiting Walla Walla and Spokane. They will return in two weeks and make their home in this city. These people are too well known to the readers of the Globe that further comment on our part is unnecessary, suffice to say that they have the well wishes of hundreds of friends in this county.

Congregational Church Notes

Nothing can be of greater interest to the Protestant Churches throughout the world than the Tercentary of King James Bible. Just three hundred years ago this version of the Bible gave to the common people the Bible in the English language.

It is interesting to know that since the American Bible Society was organized ninety four years ago, 87,296,182 copies of the Bible have been published in the U. S.

On next Sunday morning Dr. Ferris will give an address on this remarkable anniversary and present an array of facts regarding the Bible that should move every heart to great missionary zeal.

In the evening the first service under the auspices of the Business men will be held. Mr. T. A. Weinke will be the speaker of the occasion. Special music has been prepared by the men's choir. Let no man miss the service which will be unique, and worthy of a large gathering.

On Friday night a chicken pie supper will be given at the church to the members and friends of the church. No charge is made for this supper; but it is purely of a social and friendly character. It is called a "Thank Offering Supper" because every one will be privileged to make an offering if they wish, in an envelope placed by each plate, the same to be used for missionary and church building purposes.

The company will sit down to the tables at 7.00 P. M.

Subject for the Class in Applied Christianity is, "The White Slave Traffic", by Rev. Curran. Subject for Y. P. S. C. E., "Sabbath Benefits", by Florence Barker. Our choir work under the direction of Mrs. Hartshorn is creating much interest and appreciation.

On May 5th, the Gilliam County High School will give the play "The Time of His Life," in the Rink Hall. The plot centers around a young man, Tom Carter, who disguises himself as a negro servant and attempts to take the place of the regular servant. In doing this, he finds himself caught in a good many predicaments. He finally straightens things out and everything ends happily. The following students make up the cast:

- Tom Carter - Raymond Schott
- Mr. Wycombe, a man who thinks a good deal of his health, - Herbert Clarke
- Mr. James Landon, a young man with a peppery disposition, - Loren Kennedy
- Uncle Tom, the real servant, - Hubert Magee
- Bob Gray, a young business man, - Bruce Hull
- Officer Hogan, - Will Wilkins
- Dorothy Landon, secretly engaged to Tom Carter, - Tula Kinsley
- Mrs. Wycombe, a very dignified southern woman, - Georgia Searcy
- Mrs. Bob Gray, sister to Tom Carter, - Elsie Fitzmaurice

The caste has been practicing faithfully for the last month and although some of them have never before appeared before the public in such role, they all show considerable talent along such lines.

The play promises to be one of the best attractions in the amateur circles that has ever appeared in Condon and should be well supported by all the people of the town.

INVESTMENT SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

At the meeting in Mayville last Monday of the stockholders of the Investment Society of Oregon, the following well-known men were elected officers of the organization: Bert Edwards, President; J. W. Dyer, Vice President; E. B. Schomp, Second Vice President; G. W. Keys, Sec-Treasurer; G. C. Evans, General Manager.

The purchase of the Mayville Flouring Mills was then completed and Mr. Isbell of Boyd, Ore., was selected to be put in charge. The mill will be in operation in about a month. It is the intention of this society to effect co-operation among the farmers and business men also to combine investment features of the organization with a publicity campaign. An effort will be made to reduce the size of the farms near Mayville and recommend that the newcomers buy smaller pieces of land and practice more intensive farming. This movement towards co-operation has met with splendid support around Mayville and the society intends this movement to spread over the greater portion of Gilliam and Wheeler Counties. Mayville has found that their district needs more people and are not going to leave a stone unturned to try and induce them to come. The Globe feels that this movement is worthy the support of all residents of Gilliam and Wheeler Counties, and with such officers as have been elected, the society is bound to succeed in their purpose. The movement is worthy of commendation.

A. S. Hollen and Family are moving from the Baptist parsonage to the rooms over the hardware store.

The stockholders of the old mill opposite the Oregon Hotel are having the building painted and the machinery put in shape for running. When the new crop is ready to use, the mill will be started and at least enough flour for home consumption will be manufactured. The machinery of the mill is all first-class despite the fact that it has not been used for several years.
