PURELY PERSONAL

Coming and Going of People of Condon and Vicinity for the Week,
As Seen By The Globe's Reportorial Staff.

Itay Moore renewed his subscription this week to the Globe.

W. M. Wade was in this city the latter part of last week from Olex.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnhart have moved to Gladstone, Ore., and have ordered the Globe sent to that address.

Mrs. A. L. Davis and little son Orin, left on Tuesday morning for The Dalles, where they will spend the winter months.

A. J. Mayfield, formerly a farmer of the Mayville vicinity, was in this city last week from his home at Elgin, Oregon.

C. C. Clearwater left on Saturday morning for Hardman where he will act as chauffeur for Mr. Ayers, a prominent timberman.

Mrs. Lizzie Hanley of Walla Walla left on Tuesday morning for her home after spending some time visiting friends in this city.

Judge Dunn and wife went to Portland on Tuesday to attend the reception which the Knights of Columbus gave to President Taft in that city.

Jas. Smith left on Wednesday morning for Portland to be present at the reception given in that city to President Taft by the Knights of Columbus.

Mrs. Leone Wilson left on Tuesday morning for her home at Oregon City after visiting relatives in this city and Fossil. She is related to Mrs. G. W. Rinehart and Mrs. Oscar Kelsay.

C. Berge is a new subscriber to the Globe. Times may be a little hard but people seem to appreciate that in the Globe they are getting more than their money's worth.

J. E. Stephens left last Saturday with an emigrant car for Tilly, Alberta, where he will make his future home. Mrs.

Stephens left on Wednesday for Western Oregon where she will remain for some time before joining her husband in Canada.

Mrs. M. E. Kelley of Pawtucket, Rhode Island; S. J. Kuster of Detroit, Mich.; and I. A. Henderson of Fossil, now in Spokane, have each renewed their subscriptions to the Globe. These people were formerly residents of this city or vicinity and know the Globe is reliable in giving all the news of interest.

HERD LAW NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned have taken up at my ranch known as the Patterson ranch 18 miles Southwest of Condon in Gilliam County, Oregon, under the herd law of said county: one Blue Cow and four calves, branded V with a bar through it on left hip and two notches on the left ear of each of said cattle, and unless redeemed by the 14th of November, 1911, said stock will be sold on said last named date on the Andy Patterson ranch on Thirtymile Creek, 18 miles SW of Condon, Oregon. CHAS. DUNBAR.
First Publication, Oct. 13, 1911.
Last Publication, Oct. 20, 1911.

You are making a mistake ladies, if you fail to inspect Miss Pittman's stock of fall and winter styles of millinery. Everything in this line is strictly up-to-date and you are missing something if you fail to look at her stock before buying.

For Sale or Rent.

Two good pianos have been left with me for sale or rent. Will sell on easy terms. Call on or address, W. A. Darling, Condon, Oregon.

OLD FOLKS CONCERT

the comical hit of the evening by getting under the curtain when it was dropped. The most noteworthy costumes of the gentlemen were those worn by Prof. Bond, C. N. Laughrige and Frank Hollen. The violin accompaniments by Robt. Geddes, who played in the wings, produced a pleasing effect. It seems to be the unanimous opinion of those present that the entertainment was the best of the kind ever produced by local talent.
