ATTENTION is called in this issue to the prescribed duty of property owners and road supervisors in regard to injurious weeds. A half-hearted effort has been made several times to enforce this law, which is a good one, but has not met with success. Many farmers try to keep their property free from weeds but unless there be a general effort to eradicate them it will be impossible to keep any property free from these destroyers. There are many of these weeds growing along the streets and on vacant lots in Condon. The council should start the ball rolling by ordering them removed.

THE Ione Bulletin, edited by L. K. Harlan, made its initial appearance last Thursday and is a neat, clean, newsy paper. It carries a good line of advertising, showing that the business men of Ione appreciate the great benefit a town derives from a newspaper. Mr Harlan was with the Globe for a number of years and we wish him much success in his new field.

THE city treasurer's report, published in another column of this issue shows conclusively that the city has advanced financially during the last year in addition to several improvements that that have been made among them being the new and costly steel water main.

WE may not agree that President Wilson is right in some of his intentions but all must concede that he is certainly on his job and that he cares little for the cracking of the party whip.

IT MAY not be amiss to again call the attention of the council to the vile stench which is very much in evidence at the west side of the old Condon Hotel building.

Progressive.
"Please, mum," said a tramp, "would you be so kind as to let me have a needle and thread?"
"Well, y-e-s," said the housewife at the door; "I can let you have that."
"Thankee, mum. Now, you'd oblige me very much if you'd let me have a bit of cloth for a patch."
"Yes, here is some."
"Thankee very much, mum. It's a little different color from my suit, I see. Perhaps, mum, you could spare me some of your husband's old clothes that this patch will match."
"Well, I declare! You're clever, my man, and I'll give you an old suit. Here is one."
"Thankee greatly, mum. I see it's a little large, mum, but if you'll kindly furnish me with a square meal mebbly I can fill it out."

Betty's Gift.
A Lancashire vicar was asked by the choir to call upon old Betty, who was deaf, but who insisted in joining in the solo of the anthem, and to ask her only to sing in the hymns. He shouted into her ear, "Betty, I've been requested to speak to you about your singing." At last she caught the word "singing" and replied: "Not to me be the praise, sir. It's a gift."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Better than Spanking
Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H.
