piles of tin cans and rubbish are disappearing also and if we can keep the weeds down, Condon will present a better appearance this year than ever before.

A. M. WRIGHT

A. M. Wright has an announcement in the Globe to the effect that he is a candidate for the republican nomination for joint representative of this district.

A number of people have asked "who is A. M. Wright, the candidate for representative?" Mr. Wright is a retired farmer of Sherman county and is now in business in Moro. He is very highly spoken of by those who know him and that he is held in great esteem by the people of his county is shown by the fact that representative citizens of that county met last week to select a candidate for the state legislature and Mr. Wright was their unanimous choice.

As a stage for their fight, Willard and Fulton might try the western front. There might not be so many rounds but it's safe to say it would be interesting and they'd do more good there than they're doing here at home.

Any man who has had pro-Hun sympathy has an unlimited amount of gall to ask for an office under Old Glory. The people will see that his bubble is punctured.

If in the next life we can see what is going on down here, some of us are going to be very unhappy when we see how little we are missed.

The best demonstration of camouflage I can think of is the line at the head of the Times' editorial column where it says: "Official Paper of Gilliam County."

When a free press was guaranteed by the constitution it was not intended that readers should let their subscriptions go unpaid.

Even when a man marries a belle he has to furnish the ring.

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE

Jim Stewart was the best representative this district has ever had in the state legislature. Many of his friends, knowing of his good work during his last term and since, requested him to become a candidate again and he has so announced himself. When he was in the legislature he was on the job every minute and at the last session, when he was on legislative committees, he was also on the job. His untiring efforts for the construction of the John Day Highway, most important work for this district, have brought results. A vote for Jim Stewart is a vote for a square dealing, result getting man.

A CLEAN TOWN

Condon is doing her share in planting war gardens and the vacant lots that have been plowed and planted to potatoes and other garden truck makes the town appear more prosperous and more like a real home town. The

Any farmer who is unwilling to raise $2 wheat should change places with the boy who is facing German bullets for $30 a month.

A Colorado man had his jawbone patched up with a rib. But this isn't the first instance in which a rib was used to perfect a talking machine.

Why not start an offensive against tin cans and other rubbish in Condon.

Plant seeds and grow bullets.

The other day a man in the front office was looking out of the window and he said to the boss: "It must take nerve to wear extremely short skirts." And the boss said: "Maybe, but I can think of a couple of other good reasons, too."

But I suppose you are anxious to get at that war garden—

So I'll just say—
