

100 PER CENT VALUES

WE HANDLE NOTHING TO SELL AT "HALF PRICE"

The plain reason we are not offering our goods at half price is that every article you purchase at our store is guaranteed to be 100 per cent value. We can sell only cheap articles at a cheap price. Houses that advertise goods at half their real value must, in the nature of things, make up the shortage from other sales or misrepresent the article sold. They "rob Peter to pay Paul" and you are as apt to be Peter as Paul. To avoid this chance trade at the 100 per cent value store

BRUCE HULL HAS SHOWN EFFICIENCY

When selecting a man to handle your private business, no matter what it is, you would naturally pick someone qualified to give you the service you pay for. There is no question about that. How do you decide upon such qualifications? By that person's past performances, don't you? That is usually the business way. Then why not apply the same principles of business to the selection of a man to handle your public business in the county offices, for the business transacted there is yours just the same as is your farm or your store or your shop and it is important that officials be secured who have shown that they possess the necessary qualifications to give you service. If a man has made a failure of his private affairs you would hardly feel like securing him to represent you in a public office, would you? On the other hand when a man has made a success you feel that he is worthy of that trust.

Bruce Hull has shown the people of Gilliam county that he possesses the qualifications necessary to handle the people's business. Everything he has started has been completed with honor to himself and to the work. He has made good. He has proven that he has that efficiency so necessary to a business administration in the clerk's office. When you vote for Bruce Hull for Clerk you vote for good efficient service. He will make good in the clerk's office the same as he has at his other work.

PATRIOTISM AND POLITICS

The Condon Times says that to make grave and serious charges "through innuendo is one of the lowest and meanest ways to blacken a man's character." To this statement the Globe subscribes very cheerfully and wishes to point out that the Times editor must have been reading over his recent editorial activity just before writing this profound observation. The Times assails Bruce Hull's patriotism because he is a candidate for county clerk and doesn't happen to be over draft age. We agree that this is a "grave and serious charge" and that it is "low and mean" but at the same time is to be expected from the Times. The Times says of Mr. Hull: "his patriotism would be more advanced if he wielded a gun at the front instead of a pen in the clerk's office." If this is true in its application to Mr. Hull it is just as true in its application to Mr. Hull's opponent and to every other candidate who is without family obligations. The Times also says: "People who resort to such dirty politics should be rebuked by having their candidate smothered at the polls." To this confession the Globe subscribes still more cheerfully, in fact it appeals to the Globe as the very essence of wisdom for the only one we know of who has been resorting to dirty politics by attacking the character of any candidate is the Times. The only candidates the Globe has mentioned are those we are supporting for we believe in supporting those we feel are best qualified and letting the others alone. As we have said before it is not a patriotic motive which prompts the Times heartthrobs but is purely political.

Don't you think it is true patriotism to give your vote to the man who expects and is willing to go to war for his country rather than to the man who does not expect to go?

We didn't notice the word "camouflage" anywhere in the Times last week.

MICKIE'S COLYUM

THEY MAY BE SOME PLACE WHERE THEY DO BETTER JOB PRINTING THAN WHAT WE DO IN THIS OFFICE, BUT I CAN'T FIND IT ON THIS MAP!

"England's spawn—America," is the way the kaiser refers to us, adding that when he shall have crushed the parent he will turn his attention to the offspring. While we prefer a more euphonious term, we cheerfully acknowledge the relationship. Germany will yet have cause to respect the power of the "spawn" even as she now respects the British power.

Exercise is supposed to strengthen and if it does we know some women and men, who would have no trouble in landing a job with a circus as "Zu zu, the Iron jawed Marvel."

It is said that when Lenine finishes his work in Russia he will come over here. And shortly after his landing we predict a scarcity of feather pillows in his immediate neighborhood.

Probably the reason so many people know so little of themselves is because they have been taught to shun undesirable acquaintances.

Californians who are wondering what caused the recent shake-up in that state have overlooked the fact that Heney just got back.

The market basket is an old and valued member of the community but it has only recently taken its place in high society.

Congress has made a hundred million people get up an hour earlier but it has not affected a single rooster.

Holland should have sand and grit enough to refuse to have gravel transported across her territory.

Pretty soon it will be easier to keep track of the auto owners by listing those who don't own any.

Alcoholic spirits have taken a back seat. Patriotic spirit is the national stimulant these days.

Sticking War Stamps is one sure way to stick the kaiser.

The little brown hen does her bit toward winning this war by her persistent work and, too, she goes far toward relieving the meat shortage.

And it comes to our mind that the lay of the hen is a blamed sight more impressive and practically valuable than any lay ever turned out by the old bards or minstrels.

And speaking of chickens—

It is, of course, an acknowledged fact that certain localities are dangerous for the feathered patriots after dark but for an exhibition of sheer gall it would be an unusual and highly humorous sight to see someone running down a neighbor's chicken in broad daylight.

However—don't forget—

The Red Cross drive is coming soon.
