MICKIE'S COLUM

NO, SIR, MICHAEL O'BRIEN YOU CAN'T GO DOWN TO THE TRAIN TO GATHER NEWS ITEMS FOR THE PAPER, FOR YOU'RE GOING TO CHURCH WITH ME. I SHOULD THINK YOU'D GET ENOUGH OF THAT PRINTING OFFICE DURING THE WEEK WITHOUT HAVING IT ON YOUR MIND ALL DAY SUNDAY!

YEA, BO!

I know a Man Who thinks Printers are crazy And just to prove they are crazy Whenever he needs any printing He writes to half a dozen printers And asks them to quote. The other day he had a job And, so as usual, he wrote for bids. The lowest bid was One hundred and sixty-five cents And the highest bid was One dollar and ninety cents He spent twelve cents for postage In getting his bids and He spent three cents for envelopes And four cents for his writing paper And he paid eighteen dollars a week to the Clerk who wrote the letters and licked the stamps And so He sent the job to the lowest Bidder, who bid one sixty-five. But it cost him two-forty-four. I thank you.

Must Be Up-to-date

Mr. Hoover's trip to Paris is probably for the purpose of securing the latest fall modes in food conservation.

It is better to be a worker in the ranks than a shouter on the side lines. Everybody can be a worker in the food saving ranks.

"The Six Safe Sons of the Kaiser" sounds like the title of a German fairy tale. But it is no fable.

When the U. S. Army takes the field it not only takes it but holds it. Of late it is a French field taken from the Hun.

English and Canadians in the U. S. who have always enjoyed our climate may begin this fall to feel the effects of drafts.

Over 100,000 wounded men have been carried from the battle fields by the Salvation Army motor ambulances manned by Salvationists. Get ready to help.

Guarantee the soldier's ration by sticking to your own.

Wheat is selling for $50 a bushel in Turkey.

The Government is calling for 25,000 young women to join the United States Student Nurse Reserve and hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

Cold weather will be here in 90 days. Have you ordered your fuel?

Buy Here—Save Cars

An American soldier's food, clothing and war supplies for one year would fill a freight-car. We have at least a million and a quarter men already in Europe. A million and a quarter freight cars needed to haul their necessities to Atlantic ports. There will soon be two million, perhaps five. Five million carloads and how many more million to fill our contracts with our Allies? Would any patriot add needlessly to the burden of administering the railroads? Would he buy from mail order houses anything he could get at home? There is very little bought outside that cannot be purchased right here in Condon. While helping the nation you can help boost your home town.

LIEUTENANT
PAT O'BRIEN

But even without this feeling of security, there was really nothing else I could do but wait and see what fate had in store for me. I lay there watching the top of the tree for more than an hour. Time and time again I saw it sway and fancied it was coming my direction, and it was all I could do to keep my place, but a moment later I would hear the crash of the men's axes, and I knew that my imagination had played me a trick.

I was musing on the sorry plight I was in—weak, nearly starving to death, a refugee in a hostile country, and waiting patiently to see which way a tree was going to fall, when there came a loud crack, and I saw the top of the tree sway and fall almost opposite to the place where I lay! I had guessed right.

Later I heard some children's voices and again peering through the underbrush I saw that they had brought the men their lunch. You can't realize how I felt to see them eating their lunch so near at hand, and to know that, hungry as I was, I could have none of it. I was getting tempted to go boldly up to them and take a chance of getting a share, but I did not know whether they were Germans or not, and I had gone through too much to risk my liberty even for food. I swallowed my hunger instead.

Shortly afterwards it began to rain and about 4 o'clock the men left. I crawled out as fast as I could and scurried around looking for crumbs, but found none, and when darkness came I went on my way once more.

That night I came to a river and as it was the first time my clothes had been dry in a long time, I thought I would try to keep them that way as long as possible. I accordingly took
