WEDNESDAY NIGHT VAUDEVILLE

LARRY LAMONT An elongated and versatile young man presents a singing, talking and dancing bit which, according to his size, he calls SEVEN FEET OF COMEDY, and every foot is brimful of comedy idiosyncracies and laughter. The young man is a natural born comedy laugh promoter and does not depend upon his size as he has the goods and knows how to deliver them. He has a good voice and his eccentric dancing number is one of the features of his act, so be prepared to witness a comedy number that for size and quality can not be surpassed.

BEESON & HARRIS are a clever couple. Comedy all the way through. They present a singing and talking offering which they call "THE ORIGINAL RAGTIME SOLDIER MAN." They are both good vocalists and their comedy patter comes fast and furious and full of pep, the man being a comedian that has made musical comedy a study and knows the value of a laugh and how and when to place it, so come prepared as this number will be a pleasing addition to any bill.

Next Wednesday Night, October 9

Statement of the ownership and management of The Condon Globe published weekly at Condon, Oregon, October 1, 1919.

State of Oregon, County of Gilliam, ss.

Before me a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid personally appeared H. A. Hartshorn, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of The Condon Globe and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership and management of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in above caption.

That the name and address of the publisher is The Globe Publishing Co., Condon, Oregon, of the editor, managing editor and business manager is H. A. Hartshorn, Condon, Oregon. That the owner is Lillian Brown Hartshorn, Condon, Oregon. That the only mortgagee is the Condon National Bank, Condon, Oregon.

H. A. Hartshorn,
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 23rd day of September, 1919.

T. A. Weiske,
My commission expires June 21, 1919.
