ELECTRICITY FOR EVERY FARM

DELCO-LIGHT

"The Best Lighted Farm in the County"

One prominent farmer says: "Delco-Light has actually added to the value of my farm—

"The neighbors speak of it as the best lighted farm in the county—

"But it is more than that—it is the best place in which to live—and to raise a family."

Delco-Light brings city comforts and conveniences and economies to the farm.

It lights the house and barn—it furnishes power to pump the water, wash the clothes, churn the butter, separate the cream—run the vacuum cleaner and the electric fan.

It is so simple that a child can operate it and so economical that it actually pays for itself in time, labor and fuel saved.

Wishing You All Every Success for a Prosperous and Happy New Year

In this last issue in 1918, the Globe wishes to express its sincere thanks for the friends it has made during the year and for the generous patronage received. In spite of the many handicaps due to the war, or perhaps because of them, 1918 has been a very satisfactory year to the Condon Globe, probably the best the present management has had, and it is with a feeling of thankfulness that we resolve to give more and still better service to our patrons and the county as a whole during the coming year. May 1919 be a happy and prosperous year for you.

Sometimes the cigars a fellow gets for Christmas makes him resolve on New Year's day to quit smoking.

The more exposed women wear their throats, the heavier fur muffs they seem to need for their hands.

It is the man who knows all about it who has the least to say on any subject.

Uncle Sam's best Christmas present was to send some of his boys home.

The man who lead's a dog's life has an excuse for growling.

YOU'LL CHANGE YOUR MIND WHEN THE RIGHT GIRL COMES ALONG

DO THEY ALL HAND OUT THE SAME LINE OF CHATTER TO A BACHELOR?

It will not be a difficult matter to demobilize the war's homing pigeons.

Aeroplaning is one subject the correspondence schools do not teach.

Indian clubs are said to be good for the liver. Social clubs are not.

Are you going to make some good resolutions for 1919?

Don't forget the most important one of all—

Smile a little every day.

The Old Year and the New

The Old Year sat beside the hearth. In thoughtful mood; the hour was late; And ere he vanished from the earth, The past he vain would contemplate. "I brought a wealth of joy for those Who had o'erburdened been with grief," He said, "and for unnumbered woes Furnished the cordial of relief."

"To some I gave a garden's bloom, Sweet pansies and forget-me-nots; To some the cypress and the tomb, The barrenness of desert spots. With love I carried for a while Breathing the sweet Elysian air; And hiding Hope serenely smile Across the threshold of Despair."

"I entered on my natal hour Burdened alike with bliss and bane, Commissioned by my Lord to do some hearts with ease, and some with pain."

Where happiness had rich increase; I shall be honored long, I know; But those I robbed of joy and peace— They will be glad to have me go!

"I've followed many a bridal train; Have watched by many a lonely bier; With birth and death, with loss and gain, Made up the record of the year. And now beside December's gate, Where hangs the year's alarm bell, I pause to scan the past and wait The sound of my own funeral knell."

"One!—How the hours have slipped away! Two!—Some will weep with sore regret; Three!—Could I still on earth delay— Four!—Some good I might accomplish yet."

Five!—An angelic song awoke! Six!—Surely are the fetters riven. Seven!—Soon I shall hear the final stroke— Eight!—Chime sweetly with the clock of heaven! Nine!—I am nearer to my goal! Ten!—Time must eternally begail— Eleven!—Awake, immortal soul! Twelve!—Farewell! and let the New Year in!"

"I come the Old Year's debts to pay! I come his promises to keep; To walk upon the world's highway, And deck the grave where dear ones sleep. Where he gave smiles I may give tears, Life's path with good or ill bestrew; For unto him who views the years The new is old, the old is new!" —Josephine Pollard.
