Cannon Beach Library to host author Holly Lorincz in February

Holly Lorincz, the author of "Smart Mouth," will be the February speaker at the Cannon Beach Library's Northwest Author series.

The free talk will be at 2 p.m. Feb. 14 in the library.

"Smart Mouth" is funny and serious, depicting a handful of characters trying desperately to establish a workable identity. The book focuses on a new high school teacher who struggles with self-identity and shyness.

She is faced with a condescending boss, a teen's bloody secret, a perpetually angry co-worker, a criminal investigation, a natural disaster and students desperate to find someone to believe in them. Like everyone, she must find the courage to open her smart mouth, let her voice fly.

Lorincz spent her youth absorbing books in school. She has a degree in journalism as well as a master's of arts in teaching focused in writing and literature. She was the editor of the literary magazine Perceptions, and then became a high school teacher and college instructor. During that 15-year run, she was named Teacher of the Year in Oregon, won two national awards from the National Federation of Schools, coached her high school speech team to two state championships, began an editing service and published various short works.

After an extended illness, Lorincz has published a novel, runs an editing service and is a full-time MacGregor Literary agent. She lives on the Oregon coast with her son.
