MORE COAST HAPPENINGS IN BRIEF

History center acoustic series

The final night of the Cannon Beach History Center & Museum's Acoustic Series takes place on Friday, May 29 at 7 p.m. Soul-blues diva Beth Willis and guitarist Todd Chatalas will knock your socks off for this final night of joy and rivalry.

Rock Duo Beth Willis and Todd Chatalas perform both rock, acoustic and blues music. Willis, who has played in Cannon Beach before, is a local favorite who is well known for her smoky voice and an amazing stage presence.

Don't miss this opportunity to see Willis at Chatalas in a unique intimate setting. Tickets are $12 Adults and $2 Children.

The cost of tickets to this concert will help fund programs such as the Acoustic Folk & Lecture Series, exhibits, and field trip programs.

The Cannon Beach History Center is located at the corner of Spruce and Sunset in Cannon Beach. For information, call (503) 436-9301.

Painting from the inside out

"Life is a creative process," says Anne Pechovnik one of the facilitators of a workshop entitled "Painting From The Inside Out," being held at Tolovana Arts Colony Friday, June 5 from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, June 6 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m..

Using high quality tempera paints and large sheets of paper, participants paint from their own inspiration and at their own pace. Discussions, both individual and group, focus on the experience of the painting, not the paintings themselves. In order to create a safe and respectful environment, participants agree not to comment on one another's work. Pechovnik, of Pathfish

Studio, has been facilitating individuals and leading workshops in her home studio since 2012.

To register for this workshop contact Lisa at Tolovana Arts Colony, 503-440-0684, by May 22. The $99 fee includes tuition and all materials.
