Palette Puddlers to hold annual Labor Day Art Show and Sale

The Palette Puddlers annual Labor Day weekend art show and sale will be held at the Cannon Beach Chamber of Commerce, 207 N. Spruce St. Admission and refreshments are free. Participating artists will provide both morning and afternoon demonstrations of their particular styles throughout the weekend. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sept. 4-6, and Sept. 7 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This year, the Palette Puddlers created their fourth art calendar highlighting the artwork group members. Each month of the year features a painting in the artistic style of one of the 13 artist members. Calendars cost $20 and there is a limited supply. Starting

Sept. 1, the calendars can also be ordered from the PP's website www.palettepuddlers.com.

Members Louise Birkenfeld, Susan Bish, Betty Brower, Sheila Brown, Patricia Button, Judith Fredrikson, Jo Pomeroy-Crockett, Jeannette Gran-Davis, Mary Ann Gantenbein, Ireta Sitts Graube, Debbie Janssen, Suzanne King and Ellen Zimet all contributed to the calendar. Along with Susan Thomas will be showing and selling original works of art in a variety of media, including watercolor, lino-block prints, acrylics, mixed media, oils, and pastels.

The Palette Puddlers are a group of professional women artists, many of whom have painted together for many years. Every Monday, rain or shine, they paint in Cannon Beach. Three times a year, over Memorial Day and Labor Day weekends and at the Stormy Weather Arts Festival in November, they create an art gallery at the Visitor's Center to share and sell their original art works. Many of these artists show their paintings and artwork in other venues in the Northwest. Their works can be found in homes throughout the state, as well as nationally and internationally.

Add your voice to the Cannon Beach Chorus

The Cannon Beach Chorus, under the direction of Dr. John Buehler, will begin the fall 2015 performance season on Monday, Sept. 14, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Cannon Beach Community Church, 132 E. Washington St., Cannon Beach. Entering their 27th year, the chorus will begin rehearsing choral literature representing music from the 1800s to the present and includes Mass in G by Franz Schubert with organ and string quartet; a collection of carols by British composer, John Rutter and a collection of seasonal favorites, all of which will be presented at the December concerts.

The 55-voice chorus is open to singers age 16 and beyond and includes members from the coastal communities of Ocean Beach, Washington, Astoria, Warrenton, Gearhart, Seaside, Cannon Beach, Manzanita, Nehalem, and Wheeler. As advocates of choral music education, the chorus avidly supports area-wide high school choral music programs and has shared concerts with choral ensembles from Astoria High School, Warrenton High School, and Seaside High School and is planning a 2016 spring concert with Warrenton high school singers under the direction of Mr. Michael McClure. Additionally, the chorus awards the Carol Homme Memorial Scholarship to a graduating senior vocalist who plans to continue singing at the collegiate level.

The 2015 recipients of that award are Alysia Hanson of Warrenton, who plans to attend the University of Oregon, and Ellie Whitlock of Cannon Beach, who will major in music at Pacific University this fall.

For more information about the Cannon Beach Chorus, visit cannonbeachchorus.org or call 503-436-0378.
