

Unveiling of a new collection of bronze sculpture NORTHWEST BY NORTHWEST GALLERY

Friday evening May 6 Northwest By Northwest Gallery , unveiling of new collection of bronze sculpture by noted public artist Georgia Gerber. Gerber defines many of our favorite public gathering places like Rachel the Pike Place Market Pig for Seattle and downtown Portland's Pioneer Courthouse Square with 26 sculptures and fountains depicting NW wildlife. Reception with live music of local favorites Bobcat Bob & Paul Dueber & wine educator Patrick McElligott with Sineann Winery.

Saturday afternoon unveiling begins with Ann Fleming at 12 p.m. sharing her figurative/narrative sculpture in ceramic and bronze. Myths & legends & the stories of our lives inform her vision.

1 p.m. Master of Fine Art Color Landscape Photography Christopher Burkett. "Burkett has done for Color what Adams &

Weston did for Black & White". J. Enyeart historian

His works are printed by hand, one at a time in the artist's traditional darkroom.

2 p.m. Jeff White. Skyscapes & Landscapes in oil reflect the artists most memorable and moving experiences with nature.

3 p.m. Hazel Schlesinger grew up in Cannon Beach. Her oil paintings can be seen in movies, television & commercials around the world. She has been featured in Southwest Art Magazine.

4 p.m. Kara Krieger McGhee's love of nature, bird watching and narrative painting influence Kara's vision and distinct style. We are very fortunate to represent this new artist.

5 to 8 p.m. reception with artists , live music & wine educator Patrick McELLIGOTT pouring Sineann Wines.
