Great music, great food at Manzanita fest

A new festival will take over downtown Manzanita this coming July.

The Manzanita Music Festival will be an annual music celebration that presents a multi-genre collection of local, regional and national musicians playing Americana, folk, pop, reggae, bluegrass and more.

The festival is partnering with the Hoffman Center for the Arts and the North County Recreation District in Nehalem. These partners promote the educational, recreational, social, and physical well being of residents of Tillamook County. Proceeds from the event will support other like-minded organizations in the community.

The inaugural festival will take place July 23 and 24 in downtown Manzanita. It will kick off at the beach after the 26th annual Manzanita Beach Walk and Run, then extend up Laneda Avenue to stages at Third Street and a main stage at the Hoffman Center Garden next to the library. Besides music, the festival will also offer local and regional craft brews, wine and food.

Many sponsorship levels are available. For more information, call 425-394-3828, email manzanitamusicfestival@gmail.com.
