

Fort George hosts Hellorium party on Halloween

ASTORIA — Don't look for a Saturday or Sunday party here: When it comes to Halloween, Fort George Brewery sticks to tradition. And on Monday, Oct. 31, the block will be decked out, mic'd up, and ready to party.

Halloween Hellorium attendees can enjoy the vibrant vintage sound of The Waysiders starting at 8 p.m. in the Fort George Lovell Taproom. Sisters Joanna and Gabrielle Macrae front with tight harmony vocals, while the band draws on the traditions of swing, rhythm-n-blues and Cajun music. The Taproom is open to all ages on this special Monday night from 4:30 to 10 p.m.

Meanwhile, upstairs pub partiers can kick it around the raised platform with Brass Monkeys, the most-ill-inist Beastie Boys tribute band in the Northwest. Make some noise and fight for your rights: The band will be on the mic from 9 to 11 p.m. Get your costume on for a chance at prizes.

for ages 21 and older, with wristbands and IDS required. Attendees should enter through the double doors on 15th Street or through the eerie Fort George Garden.

The downstairs pub is open from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., with business as usual as it can be for a Halloween night. The spiral staircase will be for down-traveling patrons only starting at 8:30 p.m. As always, there is never a cover for live music at Fort George.
