The Nehalem Bay Garden Club hosts its annual plant and flower sale.

Garden Club accepting proposals for gift program

Cannon Beach Gazette

The Nehalem Bay Garden Club will be accepting proposals for its 2018 gift program now through Monday, Dec. 11.

Proposals should be emailed to Terri Maragos at helidoni@nehalemclub.net.

Proposals should be one page or shorter and should align with the club's mission to cultivate the knowledge and love of gardening through educational programs and activities, to aid in the protection of the environment, native plants and wildlife, and to support public service through garden-related organizations and volunteer opportunities.

Proposals should include the amount needed, specific use and benefit to the organization or public. Gifts are usually $500 or less, but larger ones can be considered if sufficient funds are available. Funds will be available for distribution by the end of December.

This gift program is supported by the club's plant sale in May.

The club is now in its 68th year. They meet at 1:30 p.m. the fourth Tuesday of the month, usually at Calvary Bible Church, 560 Laneda Ave., in Manzanita. Meetings offer a variety of activities, including speakers, demonstrations, videos and potlucks. Additional activities include garden tours, nursery tours, workshops and special speakers. Visitors are always welcome.
