

ART IN THE GREAT OUTDOORS

PLEIN AIR FESTIVAL

A raku firing on the beach at Whale Park with Dave and Boni Deal with a gathering begins at 6:30 p.m.

The Cannon Beach Gallery Group is presenting their 10th Annual Plein Air & More Arts Festival. Scheduled for June 22-24. The event will feature more than 30 artists represented by Cannon Beach's art galleries.

The artists can be found near their representing galleries or in one of five locations: Whale Park; the courtyard between Spruce and Hemlock Streets; the Coaster Theatre Courtyard; Washington Street at Ocean; and Harrison Street at Ocean. They will also all come together for an "Artists' Swarm" from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday in the Coaster Theatre Courtyard. This will be a great opportunity for everyone to see them all at work. Leading up to this event will be a two-hour courtyard concert by the Boka Marimba Band, beginning at 11:30 a.m. and sponsored by Pelican Brewing Company and Hallmark Inns.

Also back by popular demand is the Saturday evening raku firing on the beach at Whale Park with Dave and Boni Deal with a gathering beginning at 6:30 and complete with "The Music of Zingari."

Brochures will be available at all Cannon Beach Gallery Group locations and the Visitors Information Center, and will be distributed during the day by Portland still walker Melissa Rae.

Visitors are encouraged to ask questions of the artists while they work.

10th Annual Plein Air & More Festival, June 22-24

Come experience the immediacy and energy of Cannon Beach captured by Anton Pavlenko, Michael Orwick and Joanne Shellan, the very talented painters representing DragonFire Gallery for the "open air" aspect of the Festival. The natural environment as well as both street and beach life will take on new vibrancy through the eyes of these artists with dramatically different styles and interpretations. Representing the "& More" side of the festival is Dana Murray with water drop photography and her own unique take on festival events.

DragonFire Reception 4-6pm

Wine & cheese, artists and their work from the day, live music with Bucky Pottschmidt.

Sunday, June 24
Dualing Easels! 11am-1pm

Michael Orwick & Anton Pavlenko return with this very popular event. The artists provide a wonderful lesson in painting technique, collaboration and friendship as they take turns painting on each other's canvases. Not to be missed! Coffee and lite bites served.

Michael and Anton make this event so much fun. I've never been so engaged by a demonstration of the artistic process. Highly recommended!
