Stormy Weather fest to host blues greats

Cannon Beach Gazette

Oregon blues greats Curtis Salgado and Lloyd Jones will highlight a weekend full of art events and musical performances at Cannon Beach's 31st annual Stormy Weather Arts Festival, Nov. 2-4. Throughout the weekend, galleries will present special events showcasing the artists they represent with several nationally known artists on hand to share their latest works, conduct demonstrations or discuss their art. On Saturday, visitors can wander from gallery to gallery, enjoying free live music with regional musicians at indoor and outdoor venues throughout the town as they go.

Portland roots artist Lloyd Jones has recorded six acclaimed albums and earned awards, including a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Cascade Blues Association and an induction into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame. Jones and his big band take the stage on Friday night. Saturday night, Curtis Salgado, the real-life inspiration for John Belushi's Blues Brother character, takes the stage.
