Mrs. Mose Killam is very sick and Miss Lucie McDonald is doing the house work for her.

L. M. Oviatt of Sheridan is well pleased with our country and will likely buy here.

Lilbern Hardin is home from Cloverdale where he was making cheese.

It may seem to the public that the editor of this column contradicts himself, as we write our news from the beginning to the end of the week as each happening occurs.

Wm. Dick and sons are hauling hay for Mr. Nixon who is at work at Parmele's mill.

We were misinformed about Parmelees accepting a contract of 5,000,000 feet of lumber, however, we understand the buyers were there and may give them the bill soon.

Wilber Strauser has been repairing John Dickens fish boat.

Mose Killam is to haul five tons of hay for John Muir, Sr.

Chas. Harding has hauled some hay from his place on Salmon River Bay.

The rain has put a temporary stop to haying in this section of the globe.

A. M. Royse went to Fred Butterfields after potatoes Tuesday.

Fred Butterfield and W. W. Bowers have bought Gardner Bowers interest in the stock business, and Gardner will take his wife south for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. Russel has recovered from her long illness and is now able to do her own house work.

A ball game was played on the Otis grounds between two Otis teams last Sunday, making a good practice game.

J. L. Patton moved in on his homestead with his family this week. They will live in a tent until he has time to construct a house. They came from Independence. Ralph Winters brought them in from Pitner.

A NEW COMER.

SANDLAKE.

Hello! Here we come, after a few weeks delay.

Clyde Webb is visiting with relatives near the Yellow Fir mill and at Faucet Creek.

Geo. Ramsey and Lester Ryan of Dundee, are now enjoying themselves in our vicinity.

Grace Spaulding visited on Friday evening at the J. Atkinson home.

Joe Finigan has returned to our town, and is now staying at Emmett Webbs.

Rev. Bailey was a pleasant caller at James Atkinson's home on Friday.

Mr. Galloway and family are enjoying a visit with some relatives from Walla Walla, Wash.

There has been some excitement on the lake since we wrote last. Ed Hayes got in trouble with a bee. Someone got lost and was going too fast to turn back to find out where some one was waiting to direct them in the right road. Emmett Webb was partly carried up in Ira Dimonds barn on the hay fork.

Jay Hoyt and Mary Edwards made a trip to Hebo, Saturday.

Joel Atkinson, Ernest Berg and family, Norman Myers and wife and son Robert, and Jim Thompson were Tillamook visitors last week. They attended the recital given by Prof. Emill Enna at the above place on July 27th, and they report a fine time. Prof. Enna is a fine musician.

Emmett webb and family spent a very pleasant day at Ira Dimonds, Sunday.

Eugene Atkinson and Grace Spaulding were visitors at the Fred Lewallen home at Hebo, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. R. Y. Blalock of Beaver preached in our vicinity, Sunday.

Mrs. Emmett Webb spent Friday afternoon at the M. Karr home.

Josie Hoyt who has been working for Mrs. Mason at Hebo has returned to Sandlake.

Boulder Creek.

Rev. Walters started for the Valley, Monday morning with a load of cheese for W. D. Gladwill.

Miss Irene Ginn of Beaver has been visiting friends at Blaine and on Boulder Creek this week.

Miss Ruth Gray of East Creek, has been visiting at Blaine and Boulder for the past week.

Mrs. Wm. Bays is enjoying a very pleasant visit with her father and mother and sisters.

Mrs. Walters is now visiting with Miss Fannie Smith.

Wm. and Moses Bays and Frank Smith discovered last Friday that something was killing their goats, so they laid in wait and found that it was a panther which they killed. It measured 9ft and 3in. The animal had killed several goats.

Elisha mills and family spent last Sunday at the home of Jake Huston. They report a fine time.

Hughie mills of near Salem, a nephew of E. P. mills, has been visiting here. He thought he would like to stay all summer, but as it rained most all the time he was here, he went back discouraged; yet he was quite taken up with the beautiful pastures. He said that green grass looked good to him.

Frank Kumm attended lodge at Cloverdale last Saturday night.

Mr. Redaway's family spent Sunday at the Charley Johnson home.

Fannie Smith invited a few of the little girls to her home last Wednesday to visit with Irene Ginn. All report a jolly time.

The Gladwill and Smith saw mill is not running on account of the scarcity of labor.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. To day the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. New King's Discovery, which cured me,

I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, its the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Cloverdale Drug Store. Trial bottle free.
