The bad storm the fore part of the week caused a dearth of local news for this week's issue, which is very difficult to overcome.

Mrs. Frank Foster of Meda has been visiting in Cloverdale this week.

B. D. Lamar returned from Tillamook on Tuesday. It was necessary for him to make the trip on horseback on account of the bad condition of the roads.

Ray Gentry drove to Tillamook last Saturday returning on Sunday. He took as passengers Capt. Tall and crew who have just finished their season's work on the DeJla.

The road from the old creamery to Pacific City on the south side of the river is completely blocked by logs and drift wood, making it impossible for vehicles of any kind to travel on it.

H. B. Lockwood of Cloverdale, held the time card which drew the set of dishes at the Cloverdale Mercantile Co. Store last Saturday. Despite the wet weather there was quite a large crowd out.

G. W. Wallace of Tillamook, E. K. Gilbert of Beaver, and Jack Pennock, Alex Frazier and T. R. Wilson of Meda attended Masonic lodge here on Thursday evening.

Dick Robedee of Woods was a Cloverdale visitor last Saturday and Sunday while on his way home from Tillamook, where he had been on business for a week.

L. M. Krauer, proprietor of our local telephone lines, has been appointed post master for the ensuing four years. We believe this appointment meets with the hearty approval of the patrons of this of-ffice. The COURIER wishes him a successful term.

A Missouri editor refuses to publish obituary notices of people who, while living, failed to subscribe for his paper, and gives this pointed reason: People who do not take their local paper are already dead and their passing away has no news value.

If you are thinking of buying a new cook stove or heating stove you should visit the hardware department of the Cloverdale Mercantile Co. Store and look over the stock which they received in a recent shipment.

Wm. Raleigh, whom we reported in our last issue as being on his way to Portland by boat via Tillamook, was not able to secure passage on account of the bad weather so he returned on Saturday with the intention of going out over the Sheridan road. On account of the last storm, however, he was not able to get out at all, and consequently had to eat turkey with Tillamook County friends.

It was reported that Mrs. D. H. McIntyre, Lena, of Dallas, daughter of W. N. Bays of Blaine, had died of typhoid fever, later report, however, says she is on the road to recovery. She had been here visiting her parents when she got word that her husband had been taken down with typhoid fever and she returned home to care for him, taking the disease herself. Her husband has recovered.

Following is a list of the names of pupils from Tillamook county who are attending the Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis: Roy J. Anderson, Tillamook; H. M. Jas. Whitman is giving $1 as a first prize and a large framed picture as second prize each Saturday night to the one who has the best score card for the week's shoot. On Christmas eve he will give an additional prize which will be a silver set valued at $10.00. Everyone shooting at the gallery from now until Christmas will get a chance for a draw on the silver set.

DON'T HOARD MONEY

You take big chances if you hoard your savings. A chance that several people of the county have taken and lost. They may be stolen, lost, destroyed by fire or even foolishly spent.

Hoarded money earns you nothing besides being subject to loss as above.

This bank offers you security and protection, besides paying you interest at rate of four per cent per annum, on the amount deposited, if left on time deposit either as a Savings Deposit or Time Certificate.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glenn Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for coughs and colds, it dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures Grip, bronchitis, hemorrhage, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by the Cloverdale Drug store.

DOCTOR

Symptoms signify the approach of some disease-what disease few can tell. It takes years of study and experience to do that. Send for one who does know-the doctor. He will diagnose the case and write for the needed remedies, and by the way these remedies should be exactly right-pure and accurate to the fraction of a grain.

Bring Your Prescriptions to US
