

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

AND OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST

School begins next Monday.

Frank Foster was up from Meda Tuesday.

Elbert Worthington made a trip to Tillamook Saturday.

Mrs. W. A. High and children Sundayed with relatives in Tillamook.

Lee Nelson, of Newberg, was the guest this week of his sister, Mrs. Frank Owens.

Wallace Warren and wife, of Three Rivers, were business visitors in town Saturday.

Rev. Miller will preach in the Cloverdale Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

W. E. Godsey has sold his interest in the blacksmith shop to his partner, Albert Boon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Franklin, of Oretown were passengers to Tillamook Wednesday.

Mrs. Irene Stiversen and little daughter are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kraner.

Mail Carrier Moon is having a garage for his auto truck built across the road from his residence.

For Sale—One 24 gallon and three 10 gallon rennet kegs Splendid for pork or crout. Inquire at Ray cheese factory.

R. Y. Blalock, democratic and prohibition nominee for joint representative, Yamhill and Tillamook counties, was a visitor in Cloverdale Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Clark, the grammar teacher, returned to Cloverdale last evening. The primary teacher, Miss Pearl Miller, is expected here this evening or tomorrow.

The Misses Margaret and Aleda Ray left Wednesday for their home in Portland. They were accompanied as far as Bay City by Miss Gladys Hutchins, who has been visiting here.

W. M. Owen and little daughters, Dorthy and Edith, left Tuesday morning for Portland. They returned home today by auto with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Werschkul.

Before deciding on a milking machine learn about the B. L. K. milker sold by Plasker Bros., Tillamook. All the latest improvements to make it a perfect milker.

William Hanley, democratic nominee for United States Senator, and his secretary Albert Riis, in company with two other gentlemen, toured this end of the county this week.

On Monday morning last Frank Foster, in company with his father, left for Harding, Idaho, where he hopes his health will be improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Werschkul spent a few days in Portland this week, having autoed there last Saturday, accompanied by Julius Werschkul and family, who have been enjoying a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Curran, Miss Curran and Mr. and Mrs. Reed, of Estacada, came in Saturday evening and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. March over Sunday. Monday Mr. and Mrs. March with their company enjoyed the day on the beach.

Tomorrow morning Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Werschkul and the Courier editor, wife and daughter, Erma, will leave on a four weeks' trip to their old homes in Michigan. Rev. F. S. Ford and Glenn Taylor will have charge of the Courier during the editor's absence.

The Central Embroidery Club met on Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Johnson and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon of work and social chat. The hostess was ably assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Neta Bailey. The club will meet next time with Mrs. J. S. Beggs.

Word was received here Tuesday evening of the death of Mildred, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Galloway, formerly of Sandlake, but now at Palouse, Wash. The cause being spinal meningitis. This is the second child lost by them with this disease within 18 days, their oldest child, a boy, having died Aug. 12. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway have many friends in this county who sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Mrs. Cecilia Gould, wife of H. J. Gould, of Meda, passed away last week Friday after a long series of ailments and the funeral took place on Saturday in the little cemetery at Oretown surrounded by a large gathering of her old friends and neighbors. The Rev. F. S. Ford, of Cloverdale, was present and conducted the services. The flowers were numerous and beautiful. The husband who for many years has been untiring in his ministrations and care has the sympathy of the entire community. Mrs. Gould was born August 23, 1871, at Newberg, Yamhill County, Ore., and was 43 years of age. She leaves a husband and little daughter, a mother, four brothers and a sister to mourn their loss.

School Supplies

We're now ready to supply you with

School Books, Tablets, Ink, Pens, Pencils and Everything Needed in the School,

Begin to look up your needs, for the opening of school will soon be here.

Wm. A. HIGH

Druggist and Stationer
CLOVERDALE, - OREGON

Grandpa Hatton was a Tillamook visitor Wednesday.

Seventeen coming two-year-old calves, Holsteins and Jerseys, good grade, for sale or trade for dry cows. Call or phone Arba Craven, Meda.

The Tillamook County Pomona Grange met at Oretown yesterday. Fairview was represented by a delegation of 24, Nehalem 4, Nestucca 6 and Cloverdale 5. An elaborate banquet was enjoyed and resolutions passed opposing the 8-hour law and the $1500 exemption. The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in December at Nehalem.

John Dunstan, of Tillamook, was in this end of the county this week boosting for the county fair. Mr. Dunstan says the fair program is completed and that all entries must be in by 6 o'clock on the evening of September 15, the judging will be done the following day. On the 17th will be the big parade and the contests for school children on the 18, also on that day the better babies awards will be made. There is to be no entry fees but all must pay admission. Season tickets will be sold for 75 cents, general admission 25 cents, children under 12 years free. No return checks will be given.

BLACKSMITHING

and

General Repairing

All Work Guaranteed.

D. H. FLETCHER

ORETOWN, ORE.

SANDLAKE

Will Williams, accompanied by his brother and father, returned last week from the Columbia river, where he has spent the summer fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Rock spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Rock's mother, Mrs. Eva Webb.

The lady who was to speak on temperance at our school house Thursday failed to keep her appointment. Quite a number were out to hear the lecture.

G. W. Galloway made a trip to Tillamook Thursday.

Maude Webb returned home Saturday after an absence of three weeks, staying with her cousin.

Mr. Farmer, accompanied by friends, spent part of the week camping at the lake.

Mrs. Webb and son Willie, were visiting at her sister's near Tillamook this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hackett were Tillamook visitors one day this week.

Lee Wilson and family have moved to Tillamook. Mr. Wilson will cook in the Todd hotel.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to tender my heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kind assistance during the illness of my dear wife and for the many words and acts of sympathy during our bereavement.

Henry J. Gould.

Cloverdale Hotel Arrivals.

Mrs. Ray Belding, Hood River; C. E. Mourey, R. C. Jones, F. W. Christensen, J. R. Rochan, Tillamook; J. D. Stevens, B. F. Ware, W. D. Ausman, F. E. A. Smith, Portland; Tom Attinger, Sheridan; H. H. Cobb, Beaver; Elmer Everest and wife, Newberg; Art Zimmerman, White Salmon, W. R. Donnelly, W. F. Toll, Montreal, Can.; F. W. Jones Johnson, Vt.; H. McCredie and wife, Bull Run.

Fresh Batteries

AND

MARINE SUPPLIES

Delivered by Parcels Post at Portland Prices. Call or write

West Coast Electric Supply Co.

TILLAMOOK, ORE.