INTERESTING BITS OF CONDENSED NEWS GATHERED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES IN OREGON

While attempting to board a Southern Pacific train at Salem Saturday, Clifford Bussey, aged 17, fell under a car and was killed.

Two inches of snow fell in the district south of The Dalles one night this week. The Klickitat hills across the Columbia are covered with a white blanket.

Confectionery and ice cream parlors in Albany are running notices in local papers, announcing that their establishments will be closed Sundays, in accordance with the Sunday closing law.

Four men drifted helplessly into the breakers of the Coos bay bar Sunday afternoon before their launch could be reached by the big power boat of the coast guard, and the launch was saved at a time when death for its crew seemed but a few seconds away. Both boats were nearly swamped in the high seas, before calmer water was reached. T. S. O'Connor, master of the launch, who had with him Lloyd O'Connor, George Brown and J. A. Phelan, had attempted to get a line around a drum of oil, adrift from the wrecked steamer, Santa Clara, but the line fouled in the launch's rudder and Brown stripped and went overboard to cut the line. By the time the rudder was cleared and the engine started, the boat was helpless, being unable to stem the tide, running like a millrace through the narrow neck and the boat was carried swiftly toward the bar before Capt. Britt brought his life-saving crew to the aid of the men in the launch.

THE GOOD JUDGE IS COMMENDED BY THE CAPTAIN.

JUDGE, I WANT YOU TO KNOW THE CAPTAIN OF OUR PRECINCT HE'S STRONG FOR THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW.

GLAD TO KNOW THAT YOUR JUDGMENT ON TOBACCO IS AS GOOD AS YOUR COURT DECISIONS.

YOU bet the cops are wise to the little chew that satisfies—with a nibble of the Real Tobacco Chew tucked into their cheeks they are happy on their beats. No bunches to disfigure the face. The little chews mean the pouch lasts a long time and saves coin.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW "REAL TOBACCO CHEW"—CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

“Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.”

land, for his client, Clyde Wood, aged 22, insisted on pleading guilty to a charge of robbing the American apartments, and the judge sentenced him to serve 60 days in jail. Wood was married but a month ago. His wife sat weeping in the court room when her husband was led back to the cell. He stole the jewelry in order to get money to purchase a marriage license and give the officiating minister a fee.

Although it had been six years since he had been in the stable, Frank, the family horse of Professor C. D. Thompson of Hood River, suffering from an attack of illness Saturday night, pushed open a pasture gate and came to his old quarters in the barn of the Transfer & Livery Co. The horse attracted attendants at the stable by his moans. A veterinary was called, and Frank was cured.
