Sit on the Lid and Laugh.

Build for yourself a strong box;
Fashion each part with care;
When it's as strong as you can make it,
Put all your troubles there.
Hide all thoughts of your failures;
Each little cup you quaff;
Lock all your heartaches within it,
Then sit on the lid and laugh.
Tell no one else its contents.
Never its secrets share;
When you've dropped in your care
and worry,
Keep them forever there.
Hide them so completely
That the world will never dream half,
Fasten the strong box securely,
Then sit on the lid and laugh.
