If J. Rufus Wallingford, the character of many financial schemes, should visit Beaver, he would find a genius for financial manipulation, that would put in the shade anything his imaginative brain ever gave way to. One of the citizens of our neighbor town (we are withholding names) inadvertently over-drew his account at one of the Tillamook banks and upon being notified took the matter quite seriously and hastened to find a way that he might reimburse the bank without waiting for next morning's mail. He took out his check book and wrote the bank a check for the amount of the overdraft on the same account he had already overdrawn, gave it to a friend enclosed in an envelope with the request that he hand it in at the bank as soon as he reached Tillamook. The banker smiled when he saw the check pinned to the overdraft slip and advised the bearer to return them to their mutual friend.

LOWRANCE—RUTGERS.

Hemlock, Ore., March 12, 1916. A pleasant little ripple of surprise stirred the people of our quiet little berg today when Joseph S. Lowrance, one of Cloverdale's promising young men, legally, if somewhat against our will, captivated and carried away one of our most promising young women, Anna H. Rutgers. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and was performed by Dr. J. I. Montgomery, one of the evangelists now holding meetings in Pleasant Valley. The happy pair left at once for their new home in Cloverdale. We feel keenly the loss to us but congratulate Cloverdale upon receiving this acquisition to their town. —A. Friend.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.
