THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1916

If the inventive genius would devote half as much time to instruments of peace as he gives to war machinery this might be a happier old world.

Whether babies have starved in Germany is no longer an open question. Switzerland on the west and Holland on the north, both neutrals and both milk and cheese producing countries, have been free to send in all the milk needed. A report from the United States embassy at Berlin, quoted as official, says there is no truth in the statement that German children are suffering from lack of milk. It appears that provision was made to insure an adequate supply of milk for babies early in the war.

The agitation over the Bay Ocean road has reached high water mark and there are as many opinions as there are people to express them. While we would like to see Bay Ocean have the road she has so long sought, yet the fact she was unable to live up to the agreement made with the county places her in a very awkward position. The County Court would have carried out its part of the agreement had Bay Ocean come through with the amount she agreed to and no one can blame the County Court for refusing to carry out its part in the matter. In fact, had the County Court went on and expended the amount it proposed to spend, regardless of the fact that Bay Ocean did not meet her part of the obligation, would have placed the County Court in a position to be criticised for lack of business ability. Bay Ocean pays a considerable amount into the treasury of the county and should have due consideration, but where Bay Ocean made her gravest mistake was when she agreed to put up a like amount with the county to build the road.

THE SLAB CREEK SAGE SAYS

Occasionally a man rolling in wealth loses his equilibrium and rolls out of it. Its a case of love's labor lost unless it gets into the union.

Being popular consists largely in remembering what to forget.

It takes more than a visit from a wife's mother to make a man happy.

It's as risky to praise a woman's husband to her face as it is to criticise him.

You may not get all that is coming to you in this world, but look out for the next.
