Auto accidents are occurring quite frequently of late. While returning home from the fair last Thursday evening Harold Scherzinger, accompanied by Lowell Dunn, Mrs. Scherzinger, her daughter and baby, run off the road just this side of the Farmer grade. The car turned turtle and some of the occupants were caught underneath it. It is reported Mrs. Scherzinger upon arriving home found that she had two ribs broken. The balance of the party escaped with minor bruises, but how, is even a wonder to the occupants of the car. Mr. Traxler came along shortly after the mishap with his touring car and brought the party to Cloverdale. Friday evening H. A. Porter with his family drove his car off the grade near Clear creek, but no damage resulted.

Off the Line.

"What became of Buts' educated goat?"

"He had to dispose of it."

"What was the trouble?"

"The neighbors thought the goat was learning too many human accomplishments, and there was a crisis when the animal began to take in washing."—Exchange.

An Old Acquaintance.

"Don't you remember me?" said she to the parson.

"I remember your face, but don't recall your name," replied the minister.

"It's strange you should forget me. You married me twice."

"Well, well!" exclaimed the reverend gentleman. "And to think I should have forgotten one of my good customers!"—Exchange.

Oh, Fudge!

"Why do you call that fellow admiral?"

"It's a title he won in college."

"But he did no boating in college. He was a good foot racer."

"Exactly. And that's how he won his title of admiral. He was the leader of the fleet."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

For Success.

Remember if you have your mind bent on success that two things are necessary, two things that you must do yourself, that no one can aid you to achieve—mastery of yourself and a clear road to the goal. Hew down your obstructions for yourself. If you have no opportunities make them!—American Magazine.
