

She Understood.

Aviator—And then when you are up pretty high—three or four miles, say—and you look down it's positively sickening. It is stupendous, awful. A great height is a fearful thing, I can tell you. Lady (feelingly)—Yes, I can sympathize with you, poor boy. I feel just that way myself when I'm on top of a stepladder.—Princeton Tiger.

What He Expected.

The moment the razor touched his face the man in the chair realized that he was in the hands of an amateur.

"Will you have a close shave, sir?" asked the barber.

"It looks like it," returned the victim moodily. "At present the odds against my getting out of this chair alive seem very heavy indeed."—Boston Transcript.

Horse High Jump Record.

According to the latest published official figures on the subject, the record high jump for horses is held by Heatherbloom, an American horse, with a jump of eight feet two inches. Confidence, a Canadian bay gelding, is credited by the same records with a jump of eight feet one-half inch at Ottawa in 1913.

Loggerheads.

The giant turtles which are found along the Atlantic coast and frequently in southern waters in great numbers are known as loggerheads. They commonly attain a weight of 1,500 pounds. A duck as large as our goose, which is native of the shores of Tierra del Fuego and the Falkland Isles, is also called loggerhead, from its seeming stupidity and helplessness. In the West Indies this name is also given to two or three sorts of fly catchers.

Ups and Downs.

Not every statesman takes his dismissal with the humor of the Duc d'Epéron, who fell into disgrace with Henry of Navarre. Descending one day the great staircase of the Louvre, he met Richelieu ascending it, and on the cardinal asking indifferently if there was anything new taking place D'Epéron replied, "Nothing, except that, as you see, I am going down and you are going up!" Mr. Bloundelle Burton tells the story in "The Fate of Henry of Navarre."

"Do you ever worry, old man?"

"Never."

"How do you work it?"

"In the daytime I'm too busy to indulge in worry, and at night I'm too sleepy."—Boston Transcript.

THE GOOD JUDGE FINDS MOST MEN KNOW WHY THEY USE W-B CUT TOBACCO

I SEE YOU GENTLEMEN USE W-B CUT TOBACCO. MAY I ASK WHY?

IT'S QUALITY TOBACCO—CUT FINE AND SEASONED WITH SALT, SO A LITTLE CHEW SATISFIES.

YES, AND A MAN DOESN'T HAVE TO GRIND AND SPIT LIKE THOSE WHO USE ORDINARY TOBACCO

YOU can't hide the truth—that's why men who use W-B CUT Chewing know what quality tobacco is. A small chew of the real tobacco tucked away in the cheek gives men the tobacco satisfaction they want.

A gentleman's chew—it cuts down grinding and spitting and there's no unwieldy wad to roll around in your mouth or to plug out the cheek. Give W-B CUT Chewing the quality test and learn what tobacco satisfaction is.
