The President says that he is above all things else "an American citizen." Fortunately for him, nothing has taken him to Europe or Mexico during the past few years.

Papers that used to call McKinley a crook and Roosevelt a tyrant are scandalized now that anybody should breathe a whisper against our high and holy Woodrow Comparatively few people remain in the self-satisfied class after they once get acquainted with themselves.

The Evening Telegram, Portland's best daily paper, and the Cloverdale Courier, both papers one year for only $3.50.

Frank Rowe and Hugo Effenburger, of Wheeler and Nehalem, were in Cloverdale yesterday. Mr. Rowe is a candidate on the republican ticket for representative and is going to get the undivided support of both the republicans and democrats in this end of the county. Loyalty to Tillamook citizenship and the fact that Mr. Rowe is qualified for the position gives him all the advantages there is to be had.

We are informed that Miss Lowrance, who is now looking after the switchboard at the telephone office, has sent in her recognition to take effect the first of next month and the switchboard will be looked after by Mrs. Stiverson and her brother, Glen Cochran. Miss Lowrance and Miss Halbert have given the best of satisfaction and patrons regret that they have decided as they have. However, Mrs. Stiverson is not new at the switchboard, having previously looked after the wants of the patrons here and given splendid satisfaction.

Popular Couple Marries Today.

Miss Cloe Halbert, formerly one of the operators of the switchboard at the telephone office, left Tuesday morning for Midvail, Utah, and today will be married at Salt Lake City to Arthur A. Richards. Mr. Richards formerly lived at Cloverdale and the young couple are both well known here. A large circle of friends join the Courier in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

Pert Caddies.

Harry Vardon, the famous English golf player, says in the Golfers' Magazine that American caddies are as a class more independent than their English cousins. He instances the case of a boy in Florida who, coming to him eagerly in the middle of a round, exclaimed, "Here, hold these clubs for a minute and I'll go and kill that snake for you."

This story is fairly matched, however, by that of a Scotch caddy who on Mr. Vardon's dissenting from his judgment as to a certain shot exclaimed indignantly: "All right. You can have your own way now till the finish. Don't ask me anything else."
