

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

AND OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST

Hebo Items.

Grandpa Kellow, who has been quite ill, is reported some better.

A chicken dinner was given last Sunday by Mrs. Scott Boatman in honor of Miss Allie Lowrance.

Grandpa Jackson is spending the week at Beaver looking after interests he has at that place.

We understand there is to be some new tenants on the Long ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. McKillipp are enjoying the comforts of a Chevrolet auto. It was brought in over the mountain the first of the week by Mr. Martini.

Mr. Kirby left Tuesday for the valley to get some apples. He was accompanied by Ralph Bissett.

Lonzo Throup was in Wednesday from the valley with a big load of baled hay.

Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Boatman and daughter Georgia, all had dental work done in Cloverdale Tuesday by Dr. Wise.

From the looks of the cage Mr. Lundquist is building he must expect to catch a bird in the near future. Its a garage and the auto will soon be rolling in.

We will have to look up to Professor Ward and Mr. Chilcotte for a time at least, judging from the load of hay we see them bring from over the mountain.

Little Madge Kellow is very ill this week.

Cedar fence posts for sale.—E. G. Anderson, Hemlock.

A Deceptive Bill of Fare

Cook Book Free

Beginning October 24th, we are going to give free, with every Dollar cash purchase of NYAL'S Toilet Preparations or NYAL'S Family Remedies, a NYAL Cook Book, compiled and prepared by Janet McKenzie Hill, editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

This book is a valuable addition to every woman's kitchen library.

The NYAL Preparations and Remedies are too well known to need comment, suffice to say they have gained a world-wide reputation for quality.

If you never have tried them begin now by giving them a trial.

Watch for our large window display beginning October 24th.

Wm. A. HIGH
The NYAL Quality Druggist,
CLOVERDALE, OREGON

Dr. W. A. Wise, Dentist. Tuesdays.

Wilbur Bootn left this week for Idaho.

Chester Worthington and wife are Tillamook visitors today.

Mrs. Fisher, of Pacific City, was a Cloverdale shopper today.

Lester Ray and family, of Oretown, were visitors here Tuesday.

Grandma Sanders was taken to a Tillamook hospital this morning.

Frank Sutter and H. G. Kinman, of Oretown, were in the city Tuesday.

A. A. Imlah is carrying his arm in a sling, having dislocated his shoulder.

J. E. Cochran is preparing to make a trip to the valley tomorrow for a load of apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Learned Burke, of Tillamook, visited at the Messner home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen, of Oretown, were business visitors in Cloverdale yesterday.

Plasker Bros. for all kinds of plumbing, bath room outfits and fixtures. Tillamook, Ore.

Pure mountain honey, Scotch Broom brand for sale at E. E. Cross, Hebo. Special price on job lots.

Everett Landingham and V. F. Learned left for the valley Wednesday. They are expected home tonight.

Mrs. Winnie Worthington and children, of Tillamook, were visitors over Sunday with Cloverdale friends.

Arch Meyers and family moved into quarters over the old cheese factory. They moved here yesterday from Dallas.

Just the time of year for a new flashlight. See V. F. Learned. A complete stock of flashlights, batteries and bulbs.

Just received a line of the new Fall and Winter samples. Order your Suit or Overcoat now. Stiverson, Cloverdale.

Let us fill your grocery orders. we can and will meet the prices of any outside house. Cloverdale Mercantile Co.

School commenced again this morning, the teachers having returned from the teachers' institute Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Halbert moved Tuesday from her residence on the hill to the cottage owned by Elmer Webb on the north side of the river.

N. J. Meyers, of Tillamook, candidate for sheriff on the democratic ticket, was in this end of the county for a few days this week.

Mrs. Carl Shortridge left yesterday morning for Portland to purchase a new line of dry goods and gents' furnishing for the Cloverdale Mercantile Co.

W. H. Webb and sister Maude returned to their home at Sandlake the first of the week after a few days visit at the home of their sister, Mrs. C. J. Worthington.

Married—At Salt Lake City, Utah, October 12, 1916, by Rev. Elmer N. Goshen, of the First Congregational church, Arthur N. Richards to Miss Cloe Halbert. Both parties formerly resided in Cloverdale, where they have a host of friends and acquaintances.

The Evening Telegram, Portland's best daily paper, and the Cloverdale Courier, both papers one year for only $3.50.

Carl Shortridge has accepted a position to take care of the dock store for the Cloverdale Mercantile Co. and started in on his new position yesterday morning.

The Business Men's Club of Nestucca Valley met its new quarters for the first time Tuesday evening. A full attendance is desired next meeting as a house committee will be appointed and other business of more or less importance transacted.

E. L. McCabe returned Monday evening from his trip to Portland. Mr. McCabe reports that from the people on the streets Portland does not look as lively as at previous times when he has visited the city, but he says the banks and other business institutions report an increasing business.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Kirby, of Hebo, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gist and family and Mr. Gist's mother, of Cloverdale, and Hugh Barber and family, of Fairview, autoed to Nehalem Saturday afternoon. Sunday morning the party started for Seaside, arriving there before noon. Archie Gist and his party decided to go on to Portland and return by Dolph. The other parties returned the same route they went, arriving at their homes Sunday evening and report having a fine trip with but few minor accidents. Mr. Gist and family arrived home Wednesday afternoon and report that they enjoyed their trip immensely, having made a tour of the upper and lower Columbia highways.

We want a bright young lady in every school district to solicit subscriptions to a combination magazine offer that will appeal to everyone approached. First application from your school district will be first considered. Here is a splendid chance to earn some money for the holidays. Write us immediately for terms and particulars. Address Courier, Cloverdale, Oregon.

Are You Thinking of Papering Your House?

You may not have time to come to my store and look over the 300 patterns of up-to-date wall paper. Drop me a letter and state size of room or tell me what kind of a room you have. I will send you samples and prices.

Claud I Mvers, Tillamook, The Wall Paper Man.

For Sale.

- One 3-year-old registered Jersey bull.
  - One 3-year-old registered Jersey cow.
  - One 2-year-old registered Jersey heifer.
  - One 2-year-old grade Jersey heifer.
  - Two grade Jersey heifer calves.
  - One good team, weight about 2700 pounds.
  - One wagon and harness.
- Phone or write E. G. Anderson, Hemlock, Ore.

Notice of Completed Contract.

Notice is hereby given, that R. L. Shreve, County Surveyor of Tillamook County, Oregon, has filed in this office his certificate for the completion of the contract of Mallory, Haas and Blum, of the Little Nestucca River Bridge, in accordance with the plans and specifications, and any person, firm or corporation, having objections to file to the completion of said work, may do so within two weeks from the date of the first publication.

Dated this 24th day of October, 1916.
J. C. Holden, County Clerk.
First publication Oct. 26, 1916.
Last publication Nov. 9, 1916.

NEW YORK CLOTHING STORE

First Street, Tillamook, Ore

We carry an up-to-date line of MEN'S, WOMEN'S and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING—Styles to suit every individual.

Heavy Wool Undergarments, Stockings, Hats, Caps, Rain Coats, etc., retailing at half price.

M. Glickman & M. E. Farmer, Proprietors.